

Table of Contents

Introduction:

Michel Meyer: The Nature of Problematic Knowledge	3
---	---

Section I: Questioning and Philosophy 7

1. C. E. M. Struyker Boudier: Toward a History of the Question	9
2. Moritz Schlick: Unanswerable Questions?	36

Section II: Questioning and Science 41

3. Thomas Nickles: Questioning and Problems in Philosophy of Science: Problem-Solving Versus Directly Truth-Seeking Epistemologies	43
4. Jim T. Dillon: Questioning in Science	68
5. F. H. George: Aspects of Problem Solving	81
6. Jim T. Dillon: Questioning in Education	98

Section III: Questioning, Language and Discourse 119

7. Michel Meyer: The Interrogative Theory of Meaning and Reference	121
8. Lauri Carlson: Questions of Identity in Discourse	144
9. Benoît de Cornulier: "Knowing Whether", "Knowing Who", and Epistemic Closure	182

Section IV: Questions and Reasoning 193

10. Douglas N. Walton: Questions-Asking Fallacies	195
11. Wendy G. Lehnert & Brian K. Stucky: Understanding Answers to Questions	222
12. J. L. Driver: Vain Questions	243

Section V: The Context of Questioning 253

13. Ferenc Kiefer: On the Pragmatics of Answers	255
14. Herman Parret: The Epistemics of the Question-Answer Sequence and Its Psycho-Pragmatic Limitations	280
15. Anna-Brita Stenström: Questioning in Conversation	304

Section VI: Questioning and Literary Rhetoric: Kafka as Example . .	327
16. William Kluback: The Parable, the Paradox, the Question . .	329
17. Michel Meyer: Kafka or the Existentiality of Questioning . .	341
Bibliographical Notes	357
Bibliography	361
Index Nominum	377
Index Rerum	383