Reading Comprehension Test 6: The polar bear problem

Polar bears are in danger because of global warming. Read the story and find out why. Match the first part of each sentence (1–8) to the correct ending (A–J). There are two endings not used.

The polar bear problem

- 1 Canada has got a lot of polar bears. They like to hunt seals on the ice of Hudson Bay. Thirty years ago, ice was on the sea from October to June but today it is often only there
- 5 from December to May.
- Polar bears can only hunt the seals from the ice. They also have to eat a lot of them to gain fat because in the summer they live on the land where there isn't much food
- 10 for them. The polar bears used to hunt for more than eight months every year, now they are lucky if they can hunt for six months on the ice. A hungry bear is not a happy bear – and for the people in a town called Churchill, hungry bears are a big problem.
- The bears always came to Churchill in late October to wait for the ice to start and
- 15 they weren't a problem. Now they come early in July! And, because they are hungry they are now coming close to people's homes where they look for things to eat in bins or they attack dogs. But a polar bear will attack a person, too. No one locks their car here; if a bear chases you, you can get into anyone's car, lock the door and you're safe.
- 20 Churchill has a special polar bear prison and polar bear police. If a bear is a problem, the polar bear police catch it and take it to the 'prison'. When there is some ice, the polar bear is taken by helicopter and put onto the ice so it can hunt and be happy once again.

		A	have changed.
1	Polar bears	B	get hungry.
2	The times when bears can find food	C	help the bears.
3	In summer, polar bears	D	find a polar bear outside your house.
4	The polar bears have become	E	leave their car doors open.
5	The bears are coming	F	break into houses.
6	In Churchill, you might	G	a problem.
7	The people in Churchill	H	live on the land in winter.
8	People try to	I	hunt seals when the sea is frozen.
		J	into town much earlier now.

Listening Comprehension Test 1: Short conversations

1 Where does Tom want to go on holiday?

Jane: Where should we go on holiday this year, Tom?

Tom: I don't want to go to a city again. We went to one last year.

5 Jane: I'd like to go to Japan – we haven't been there yet.

Tom: I'm not sure I want to go there. I'd like to go somewhere different.

Jane: Like where? South Africa? Australia?

10 Tom: A safari in South Africa sounds fun. I'll see what's on the internet about it.

What does the man need?

Man: Excuse me, please. Can you help me?

Woman: Of course. Are you lost?

15 Man: No, I'm not. I just need some change for the ticket machine. It just takes coins or cards and I've only got a £ 5 note.

Woman: I'm sorry, I can't change that. Ask in the shop over there.

20 Man: Thank you, I'll do that.

How many minutes late is the train today?

Tina: I hate this train at the moment. Every day it arrives at a different time.

George: What time should it arrive?

25 Tina: At 6.33. But yesterday it was 10 minutes late, on Monday it was 13 minutes early and today it's 30 minutes late! Who knows when it will come tomorrow!

George: It's very annoying, isn't it?

30 Tina: Yes, it is, ... especially when you use it every day to get to work.

What did the bird take?

Phil: Hi, Julia. I'm going to Whitby tomorrow with my class.

35 Julia: That'll be fun.

Phil: Hope so, ... and I'm going to have some fish and chips and an ice cream.

Julia: Whitby has the best fish and chips in the world.

Phil: And the worst seagulls! Last year I was eating
40 my fish and chips outside and one flew down and stole my fish! I only had my chips left!

Julia: A flying thief ... how cool is that!

Which question is difficult?

Teacher: Good morning everyone. So, how far did
45 we get yesterday?

Sam: We'd just finished question 14 on page 40.

Teacher: That's right ... and today we're going to do questions 15 and 16.

Sam: Can I say something first?

50 Teacher: Of course, Sam, go on.

Sam: Most of us had a problem with number 14 ... I don't think anyone has got it right.

Teacher: Oh dear ... let's look at it again then before we do something new.

55 What is Emma going to buy?

Emma: I have to buy my little sister a birthday present. Any ideas?

Peter: Maybe she'll be happy with some pencils, felt pens and some paper.

60 Emma: That's not very much! What about some clothes? A T-shirt and a jumper maybe?

Peter: I don't know. What if they don't fit or she doesn't like them?

Listening Comprehension Test 3: Sharks

- 1 Adam: Hi, Nicki. Nice to see you in the studio today.
Nicki: Thanks, Adam. It's great to be here.
Adam: So, one day you decided you'd fly to Florida and then jump in the sea with lots of hungry sharks?
Nicki: Not quite. I was in my last year at school and I wanted to do something different. Lots of my friends were talking about jobs and so on ... and I was thinking: freedom, adventure, fun. Then one day I was surfing the internet looking for things I could do when I read about a group of people doing a study of sharks – shark research – and they wanted someone to help them.
Adam: Sharks aren't exactly friendly, are they? Weren't you worried about them?
Nicki: A little bit on the plane. But later I learnt so much about them. They've got a bad name, but that's not fair. They don't often attack people but when they do, it's often a mistake ... and, apparently, people don't taste nice.
Adam: Oh, that's something!
Nicki: No, what I mean is sharks see people in wetsuits or on surfboards and they think: "Yummy, seal for dinner." So, if they're hungry they'll take a bite and then go, "Yuk, that's horrible!" There are usually just over 80 shark attacks every year in the whole world and only about five people are killed: dogs kill 25,000 people and crocodiles 1,000! Top of the table of bad guys are mosquitoes – actually did you know only the females bite? Anyway, ... way down in 15th place is the poor shark.
Adam: Can you do anything to make the risk of a shark attack even less?

- Nicki: Sure. Always go into clear water – then a shark can see if you're a seal or not. Don't go into the sea in the early morning or late evening – sharks like to hunt then. And if you can, stay close to other people – sharks don't like groups.
Adam: Interesting. Let's take a break and play some music and we'll be back with Nicki in a few minutes.

Kurse E und G

I. Listening

This is the listening part of the final examination 2019 levels A2 and A2 plus for schools in Lower Saxony. There are four parts to the test. You will hear each part twice. For each part of the test there will be time for you to look through the questions and time for you to check the answers. Write your answers on the paper. You must not speak during the test.

Part 1

Now look at part 1. There are 6 questions in this part. You will hear 6 short conversations. You will hear each conversation twice. For each question there are three pictures and a short recording. Choose the correct picture and put a tick in the box below it. Before we start, here is an example:

Which pet will the boy get?

1 Keith: Hi Richard, this is Keith. Remember what I told you about my new pet at school?

Richard: Yes, you said you wanted a spider. Ugh! Can't imagine why.

5 Keith: That's what my parents said at first. They said they'd buy me a fish tank with tropical fish. Can you imagine how boring that is? Fish?!

Richard: Yes, you're right. My grandfather has fish. Well, have you thought about an iguana? An iguana would 10 make a great pet. I'd love to have one. But you know my parents.

Keith: Haha. But my parents are cool. After thinking about it, they agreed with my first wish. I'm going to call him Mitzy.

The second picture is correct.
So there is a tick in box B.

✎ Hinweis: "Yes, you said you wanted a spider." (Z. 3), "... they agreed with my first wish." (Z. 13)

Text 1

Now look at the three pictures from question 1. Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear each recording twice.

Which tickets do they buy?

1 Man: While we're on the Internet, let's check which concert tickets we can get for Tim's birthday.

Woman: Oh, look here! Eminem's coming to town. His new album is fantastic and the tickets aren't too expensive.
5

Man: Oh no, it's sold out already. But Taylor Swift is on tour too.

Woman: It's only you who likes her. Tim and I can't stand her! Tim prefers hip hop.

10 Man: What's this: Cro – hip hop from Germany. That sounds interesting.

Woman: I've heard about him. So let's check it out.

Now listen again.

1. C
