

Table of Contents

Preface	9
Executive Summary	11
1 The Nature of the Study	19
Purpose and Rationale	19
Methodological Assumptions and Limits	19
2 The Implications of the Web for Leadership	21
The Implications of the Web for the Context of Leadership	21
The Need for a New Leadership Paradigm	23
Seven Indicators of the Need for a New Paradigm	23
Criteria for a New Paradigm	28
A Sampling of Alternative Paradigms	29
Implications of a Paradigm Shift	32
Developing New Leadership Mindsets, Skills and Knowledge	32
Mindsets	33
Skills	34
Knowledge	37
Fostering New Cultures	39
	5

3 The Organizational Impact of the Web by Sector	41
How the Web is Impacting the Business Sector	41
Challenges and Opportunities	41
Patterns and Examples	46
Cases in the Business Sector	57
How the Web is Impacting the Social Sector	62
Challenges and Opportunities	62
Patterns and Examples	68
Cases in the Social Sector	79
How the Web is Impacting the Government Sector	83
Challenges and Opportunities	83
Patterns and Examples at the International Level	87
Patterns and Examples at the National/Federal Level	87
Patterns and Examples at the Regional/State/Local Level	93
Cases at the Regional/State/Local Level	96
How the Web is Fostering the Emergence of a 21st Century Commons	99
Social Entrepreneurship	100
Cross-Sectoral Communities of Practice	102
Free-Agent Initiatives	103
Multi-Stakeholder Initiatives and Communities	107
Conscious Capitalism	108
4 Exploring the Leadership Implications for Organization	111
Determining How Your Organization Should Position Itself	111
Establish Learning as a Foundation	112
Gauge the Desired Level of Openness	113
Choose an Appropriate Structure to Support the Strategy	115
Encouraging Your Organization to Respond Strategically	117
Gain Personal Web Literacy and Foster Its Acquisition by Your Team	118
Encourage a Long-Term Thinking Process that Addresses Web Strategies	119
Encourage Your Organization to Develop Policies on the Use of Social Media	120

Encourage Someone in the C-Suite of Your Organization to Use Social Media	121
Help Your Organization Anticipate/Address Common Barriers to Open Leadership and the Adoption of Web Tools	122
Encourage Your Human Relations, Marketing and Communications Departments to Experiment with Social Media	123
Ensure Development of Web Strategies from Multiple Perspectives	125
5 Cautions About the Leadership Impact of the Web	127
6 Concluding Reflection	129
Appendix: Trends in the Evolving Web	131
Pre-Internet Tools	131
Web-Based Tools	132
Web 1.0	133
Web 2.0	134
Web 3.0 and Beyond	138
Index of Organizations	141
References	151
Endnotes	165
The Authors	171