

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	IX
Figures	XVII
Acknowledgments	XXIII
Introduction	XXV
Methodological Considerations	XXVII
Status Quaestionis	XXXI
Chapter 1: Setting the Stage	1
1.1 Body Language in Early Imperial Society	2
1.2 Sieging Olympus: Humankind Claims Immortality	10
1.3 Knowing the Gods: From Cult Statues to Iconic Persons	19
1.4 Conclusions	33
Chapter 2: Emperors	37
2.1 Negotiating Divinity in Rome	38
2.2 Constructing Iconicity	41
2.3 From Image of Jupiter to Image of Christ	55
2.4 Conclusions	69
Chapter 3: Martyrs	71
3.1 Paul's Concept of Iconic Living	73
3.2 Performing Christ in the Arena	75
3.3 God's Living Temples	80
3.4 Preserving the Martyrs' Iconicity: Relics	88
3.5 Preserving the Martyrs' Iconicity: People	93
3.6 Conclusions	97
Chapter 4: Initiates	99
4.1 Visions, Ascensions, and Transformations in Late Antique Initiations	100
4.2 New Bishops for a New Church	107
4.3 Making Golden Statues of Christ	111
4.4 Beyond Baptism	121
4.5 Conclusions	123

Chapter 5: Bishops 125

 5.1 From Martyr-bishops to Teacher-bishops 125

 5.2 Rome's Aristocratic Bishops 128

 5.3 Emperor Justinian's Living Mirrors 141

 5.4 Beyond the Living Bishop 157

 5.5 Conclusions 157

Chapter 6: Stylites 159

 6.1 Living vs. Animated Statues 160

 6.2 Multiplying the Stylite's Body: Eulogia, Relics, Columns 166

 6.3 Preserving the Iconic Body: Icons 174

 6.4 Conclusions 180

Chapter 7: Conclusion 183

Bibliography 187

Index of Ancient Names 233

Index of Places 236