

111 Places

- 1___ The Adam & Eve
The oldest pub in a city of ancient pubs | 10
- 2___ Alan Partridge Mural
Norwich's best-known fictional creation | 12
- 3___ Amelia Opie
'Mrs Opie, Norwich is my lawful and proper designation' | 14
- 4___ Anna Sewell Memorial
Black Beauty author commemorated | 16
- 5___ Arminghall Arch
Hidden secrets of Norwich Magistrates Court | 18
- 6___ The Assembly House
Elegant building revitalised by celebrity chef | 20
- 7___ Augustine Steward's House
Norwich's wonkiest, most historic house | 22
- 8___ Bawburgh Village
Pretty riverside village and shrine to a saint | 24
- 9___ Benedicts
Shut your eyes, taste the food...you're in Norwich | 26
- 10___ BeWILDerwood
Sustainable adventure park for kids of all ages | 28
- 11___ Bishop's Garden
Bucolic secret in the heart of the city | 30
- 12___ Book Hive
Beautiful and inspirational literary shop | 32
- 13___ Bread Source
Artisanal bakery locals wouldn't be without | 34
- 14___ Brick Pizza
On a sunny day you could be in Naples | 36
- 15___ The Bridewell Museum
Treasure-trove of artefacts tell tale of Norwich | 38
- 16___ Britons Arms
One of the oldest buildings in Norwich | 40
- 17___ Bure Valley Railway
Norfolk's longest narrow-gauge railway | 42
- 18___ Caistor St Edmund
Evocative ruins of East Anglia's Roman capital | 44

- 19___ Carrow Road
Home to Norwich City FC | 46
- 20___ Cathedral of St John the Baptist
Norwich's Gothic Revival masterpiece | 48
- 21___ Cathedral Precincts
Delightful grounds to supplement a cathedral visit | 50
- 22___ Cinema City
Norwich's best cinema and a historic site | 52
- 23___ City Hall
The very model of municipal modernism | 54
- 24___ City Walls
Discovering the walls of the medieval city | 56
- 25___ Colegate
Main Street of 'Norwich Over the Water' | 58
- 26___ Delia's
One of Norwich's best foodie experiences | 60
- 27___ Dragon Hall
Medieval hall now National Centre for Writing | 62
- 28___ Eaton Park
Everything an urban park should be | 64
- 29___ Edith Cavell Memorial
'Patriotism is not enough' | 66
- 30___ Elizabeth Fry
Famous social reformer and feminist | 68
- 31___ Elm Hill
The city's most photographed street? | 70
- 32___ Fairhaven Water Garden
A gorgeous microcosm of the Broads | 72
- 33___ Fairhurst Gallery
Historic gallery and workshop | 74
- 34___ The Fat Cat
A fine pub and brewery | 76
- 35___ Forncett Steam Museum
One man's tribute to the Industrial Revolution | 78
- 36___ The Forum
Perfect place to meet someone, any time of day | 80
- 37___ The Garnet
Terrific and unique city centre pub | 82
- 38___ George Skipper's Grave
Norwich's Gaudi leaves indelible mark on the city | 84

- 39___ The Great Hospital
A remarkable collection of buildings from various eras | 86
- 40___ Gressenhall Farm and Workhouse
Victorian workhouse open to the public | 88
- 41___ The Guildhall
Serving many significant roles for centuries | 90
- 42___ Gybsons Conduit
Grand public water fountain | 92
- 43___ Gyre & Gimble
Original gin at the city's best cocktail bar | 94
- 44___ The Halls
St Andrew's and Blackfriars – important city venues | 96
- 45___ Horning
Picturesque riverside village | 98
- 46___ Jarrold Department Store
'As Norwich as Colman's Mustard or The Canaries' | 100
- 47___ Jem Mace
Norwich's famous bare-knuckle fighter | 102
- 48___ Jenny Lind
The cause of 19th-century 'Lind-Mania' | 104
- 49___ Kett's Heights
Best view of the city from a historic location | 106
- 50___ Lollards Pit
Once a place of execution, now ale and good cheer | 108
- 51___ Loose's Emporium
Packed full of items you didn't know you needed | 110
- 52___ Lotus Cars
Essential visit for any F1 fanatic | 112
- 53___ Macarons & More
Masterchef finalist finds niche in Norwich | 114
- 54___ Maddermarket Theatre
Home of the Norwich Players | 116
- 55___ Magdalen Street
Full of serendipitous opportunity | 118
- 56___ The Maids Head Hotel
'Fantastically rambling but comfortable' | 120
- 57___ Marston Marshes
A haven for wildlife all year round | 122
- 58___ Mousehold Heath
Classic views from the city's largest open space | 124

- 59___ The Murderers
Great pub with grisly history | 126
- 60___ Norfolk Tank Museum
Collection of working tanks and armoured vehicles | 128
- 61___ Norwich Castle
Many ghastly happenings – and an art gallery | 130
- 62___ Norwich Cathedral
The city's most iconic structure | 132
- 63___ Norwich Market
Street food heaven at UK's largest, oldest market | 134
- 64___ Norwich Puppet Theatre
Disused church put to good use | 136
- 65___ Octagon Chapel
Georgian home of Norwich's Unitarians | 138
- 66___ The Old Meeting House
The best hidden church in Norwich | 140
- 67___ Pablo Fanque Plaque
Circus man of extraordinary equestrian skills | 142
- 68___ Palace Plain
Home of Norwich's best-known landscape painter | 144
- 69___ Philip Browne
Norwich's streetwear and designer clothing pioneer | 146
- 70___ Plantation Garden
Landscaped gardens offering peace and seclusion | 148
- 71___ Pottergate
A study in miniature of what makes Norwich special | 150
- 72___ Pub & Paddle
A unique way to see the city – and its pubs | 152
- 73___ Pull's Ferry
John Pull: ferryman and innkeeper | 154
- 74___ Riverside Walk
Historic meander from station to city centre | 156
- 75___ ROARR! Dinosaur Adventure
Fun-filled dino-destination for kids of all ages | 158
- 76___ Roger Hickman's
A restaurant of choice for a night out in Norwich | 160
- 77___ Rosary Cemetery
UK's first non-denominational cemetery | 162
- 78___ Royal Arcade
George Skipper's splendid Art Nouveau landmark | 164

- 79___ Royal Hotel
Designed by prestigious architect Edward Boardman | 166
- 80___ Roys of Wroxham
'The biggest village store in the world' | 168
- 81___ The Sainsbury Centre
The Jewel in UEA's Crown | 170
- 82___ Saints George and Peter Hungate
Churches featuring beautiful stained glass | 172
- 83___ Salhouse Broad
Closest and one of the prettiest of the Broads | 174
- 84___ Sarah Glover
Ti – more than just a drink with jam and bread | 176
- 85___ Shardlake's Norwich
Discover Norwich with a local history nut | 178
- 86___ Sir Toby's on the Market
A beer-lover's delight | 180
- 87___ The South Asia Collection
Unique museum and shop – in the centre of Norwich | 182
- 88___ St George Colegate
Welcoming church full of interesting memorials | 184
- 89___ St George's Distillery
Tour and taste at England's original whisky producer | 186
- 90___ St Giles on the Hill
City's tallest church tower a distinctive landmark | 188
- 91___ St Gregory
Fine medieval church – with a bric-a-brac store | 190
- 92___ St John Maddermarket
Medieval church that's full of interest | 192
- 93___ St Julian of Norwich
'All manner of things shall be well' | 194
- 94___ St Peter Mancroft
Majestic church, home of the 'complete peal' | 196
- 95___ Strangers Hall
Wealthy medieval merchant's house | 198
- 96___ Street Art
Murals that question and celebrate Norwich | 200
- 97___ Strumpshaw Fen
Among Norfolk's best RSPB reserves | 202
- 98___ Subterranean Norwich
Discover the secrets of the city below ground | 204

- 99___ Surrey House
Palladian-style HQ of city's most famous firm | 206
- 100___ Thomas Browne
City's brainiest man sits amid pigeons and buskers | 208
- 101___ Thorpe Marshes
A taste of the Broads without leaving the city | 210
- 102___ Tombland
The beating heart of Norwich in Anglo-Saxon times | 212
- 103___ Tombland Books
Tardis-like home of literary treasures | 214
- 104___ Trowse Newton
Built by the Colmans for mustard factory workers | 216
- 105___ University of East Anglia
Crazy architecture and Nobel prize-winning alumni | 218
- 106___ Unthank Road
Norwich's coolest residential street? | 220
- 107___ W. G. Sebald's Grave
One of literature's 'most transformative figures' | 222
- 108___ Wheatfen Nature Reserve
A breathing space for the cure of souls | 224
- 109___ Whitlingham Country Park
The National Park on Norwich's doorstep | 226
- 110___ Wymondham Abbey
Impressive church and medieval ruins | 228
- 111___ Yalm
The spirit of north-west food halls in Norwich | 230