Abstract	V
1 Introduction	1
1.1 Overview of Book	2
1.2 Team Competence as Employability Factor and Educational Objective.....	3
1.2.1 Current Study on Graduates Requirements	5
Theoretical Part	7
2 Teamwork	9
2.1 Definitions of Group	9
2.2 Definition of Team	10
2.3 Social Inhibition and Loafing	11
2.4 Individual versus Group Performance	12
2.5 Team Effectiveness	13
2.6 Team Composition	15
2.7 Team Climate	16
2.8 Team Development and Process	17
3 Role of Technology in Teamwork	19
3.1 Media Choice Theories	19
3.1.1 Social Presence Theory	19
3.1.2 Media Richness Theory	20
3.1.3 Media Synchronicity Theory	20
3.2 Characterization of Media	22
3.3 Virtual Team Communication	23
4 Computer Supported Cooperative Learning	25
4.1 Theoretical Background of Cooperative Learning	26
4.2 Positive Effects of Cooperative Learning Groups	27
4.3 Types of Cooperative Learning	27

4.4	Instructional Design and Conditions of Cooperative Learning	28
4.4.1	Positive Interdependence	29
4.4.2	Individual and Team Accountability	29
4.4.3	Promotive Face-to-Face Interaction	30
4.4.4	Interpersonal and Team Skills	30
4.4.5	Teamprocessing	30
4.4.6	Learning Group/Team size	30
4.4.7	Team Composition	31
4.4.8	Team Roles	32
4.4.9	Task Type	32
4.5	Assessment of Teamwork	33
4.6	Including Teamwork in Courses	34
4.7	Cooperative Learning in the Computer Science Studies	37
4.7.1	Introductory Team Software Process	38
5	Teamwork Competencies	39
5.1	Definition of Teamwork Competencies: Knowledge, Skill and Attitude Competencies	40
5.1.1	Team Skill Competencies	42
5.1.2	Team Knowledge Competencies	43
5.1.3	Team Attitude Competencies	43
5.2	Measuring Teamwork Competencies	44
5.2.1	Questionnaires	44
6	Promoting Team Competencies	49
6.1	Overview on Training Team Competencies	49
6.2	Promotion of Team Competencies in Higher Education and Computer Science	50
6.2.1	Effective Team Player (ETP) – Team Training Program (TP)	51
6.2.2	Promoting Team Knowledge Competencies	52
6.2.3	Training Team Skill Competencies	53
6.2.4	Promoting Team Attitude Competencies	56
6.3	The Potential of Encounter Groups to Enhance Team Competencies	57
6.3.1	Encounter Group Process	57
6.3.2	Effects of Encounter Groups	57
6.4	Effectiveness of Interventions to Promote Team Competencies in the Context of Higher Education and Computer Science	58
	Empirical Part	61
7	Person Centered Technology-Enhanced Courses	63
7.1	Description of Courses	63

7.1.1	Web Engineering (WE).....	63
7.1.2	Soft Skills (SS).....	64
7.1.3	Person Centered Communication (PCC).....	65
7.1.4	Organizational Development (OD).....	65
7.1.5	Project Management (PM).....	65
7.2	Overview of Activities that Promote Team Competencies in Courses.....	71
7.2.1	Teamwork.....	72
7.2.2	Promotion of Team Competencies.....	76
7.3	Person-Centered Pedagogical Baseline.....	83
7.4	Learning Platform – CEWebS.....	84
7.4.1	Starting Page.....	84
7.4.2	Team Building.....	85
7.4.3	Team Contributions and Peer-Reviews.....	86
7.4.4	Further Functionalities.....	87
8	Research Paradigms in the Context of Investigating Blended Learning Courses	89
8.1	Survey of Research Paradigms.....	90
8.2	Comparison of Research Paradigms in the Field of Educational Research.....	95
8.3	Research Designs Used.....	97
9	Data Collection: Course Evaluation Questionnaire	99
9.1	Characterization of Courses.....	99
9.1.1	Motivational Aspects.....	99
9.1.2	Profitable Aspects.....	100
9.1.3	Learning on Three Levels.....	100
9.1.4	Profiting and Contributing.....	101
9.1.5	Learning Platform.....	101
9.1.6	Course Elements.....	101
9.1.7	Feeling of Community.....	101
9.2	Person-Centered Attitudes.....	101
9.2.1	Person-Centered Attitudes of Students (Self-Constructed).....	101
9.2.2	Person-Centered Attitudes of Instructors (Self-Constructed).....	102
9.2.3	Person-Centered Attitudes of Team-Members (Self-Constructed).....	102
9.2.4	Relationship Inventory (Barrett-Lennard).....	102
9.3	Personality Traits.....	109
9.3.1	NEO-FFI.....	109
9.3.2	Openness (Self-Constructed).....	109
9.3.3	Self-Assertion (FSKN).....	110
9.3.4	Sensitivity, Openness and Flexibility.....	110

9.4	Contacts and Working in Teams	110
9.4.1	Establishing Positive Interactions and Relationships and Working in Teams.....	110
9.4.2	Influence on Contacts.....	110
9.5	Team Competence Scales	111
9.5.1	Team Knowledge Competencies.....	111
9.5.2	Team Attitude Competencies: Team Orientation (BIP).....	111
9.5.3	Team Attitude Competencies: Team Efficacy (TWS-Lern).....	111
9.5.4	Team Skill Competencies: Team Skills (self-constructed)	112
9.5.5	Team Skill Competencies (ALL).....	112
9.5.6	Skill Competencies: General Self-Rating and Aim of Enhancing.....	112
9.5.7	Team Competencies on Three Levels	113
9.6	Further Team-Related Scales	113
9.6.1	Team Climate.....	113
9.6.2	Overall Team Achievement and Collaboration.....	114
9.6.3	Team Communication.....	114
9.7	Use of Questionnaire Scales in Courses.....	114
10	Statistical Analysis	117
10.1	Proof of Assumptions	117
11	Empirical Studies, Part 1: Description of Courses and Influence on Team Competencies	119
11.1	Overall Hypotheses	119
11.2	Research Questions	120
11.3	Method.....	122
11.3.1	Pretest/Posttest Design.....	122
11.3.2	(Quasi)-Experimental Design	122
11.3.3	Comparison with “Typical” Courses.....	123
11.3.4	Overview.....	123
11.4	Data Cleaning.....	124
11.5	Sample.....	125
11.6	Results.....	129
11.6.1	Characterization of Courses	129
11.6.2	Influence on Person-Centered Attitudes	150
11.6.3	Influence on Other Personality Traits	152
11.6.4	Influence on Contacts and Working in Teams	156
11.6.5	Influence of Courses on Team Competencies.....	160
12	Empirical Studies, Part 2: Promoting Team Competencies in Courses	177
12.1	Overview	177

12.2	Qualitative Interviews: Teamwork in the Studies, Promotion of Team Competencies	178
12.2.1	Research Questions	178
12.2.2	Method	178
12.2.3	Sample	178
12.2.4	Results	180
12.3	Team Knowledge, Skill and Attitude Competencies.....	191
12.3.1	Research Questions and Method	191
12.3.2	Sample.....	191
12.3.3	Quantitative Results	191
12.3.4	Qualitative Results	193
12.4	Drawbacks and Opportunities for Promoting Team Competence in the Studies ...	196
12.4.1	Research Questions and Method	196
12.4.2	Sample.....	196
12.4.3	Results	196
12.5	Conclusion.....	199
13	Empirical Studies, Part 3: Teamwork in the Studies	201
13.1	Overview	201
13.2	Students' Perception of Teamwork in Web Engineering	201
13.2.1	Research Questions	201
13.2.2	Method	201
13.2.3	Sample.....	202
13.2.4	Results	202
13.2.5	Summary	204
13.2.6	Interpretation	204
13.2.7	Conclusion.....	205
13.3	Arguments in Favour and Against Teamwork in the Studies	205
13.3.1	Method and Sample.....	205
13.3.2	Results	205
13.3.3	Conclusion.....	206
13.4	Distribution of Work in Small Teams	206
13.4.1	Research Questions	206
13.4.2	Method	207
13.4.3	Sample.....	207
13.4.4	Results	207
13.4.5	Conclusion.....	208
13.5	Qualities of a Good Team Colleague	208
13.5.1	Method and Sample.....	208
13.5.2	Results	208
13.5.3	Conclusion.....	209

14	Empirical Studies, Part 4: Teamwork and Media Choice	211
14.1	Overview	211
14.2	Online Media versus Presence Meetings for Teamwork and Networking.....	212
14.2.1	Method and Sample	212
14.2.2	Results.....	212
14.2.3	Conclusion	213
14.3	Milestone Reflections.....	213
14.3.1	Method and Sample	213
14.3.2	Results.....	213
14.3.3	Summary.....	215
14.3.4	Interpretation.....	216
14.3.5	Conclusion	216
14.4	Qualitative Interviews.....	217
14.4.1	Introduction.....	217
14.4.2	Research Questions	217
14.4.3	Method	217
14.4.4	Selection of the Communicative Media for Analysis.....	218
14.4.5	Sample.....	218
14.4.6	Analysis.....	219
14.4.7	Results.....	219
14.4.8	Interpretation.....	223
14.4.9	Conclusion	224
14.5	Team Climate, Person-Centered Attitudes and Media Choice.....	224
14.5.1	Research Questions	224
14.5.2	Sample.....	225
14.5.3	Results.....	226
14.5.4	Interpretation.....	229
14.5.5	Conclusion	230
15	Implications for Computer Science and Information Systems Curricula	233
15.1	Overview on Possibilities for Promoting Team Competencies in Curricula.....	233
15.1.1	Thoughtfully Including Cooperative Teamwork in Courses.....	235
15.1.2	Training for Course Instructors.....	235
15.1.3	Direct Promotion of Team Competencies (in Compulsory Subjects)	236
15.1.4	Direct Promotion of Team Competencies (in Optional Subjects).....	236
16	Summary	237
17	Literature	241
18	Appendix	265
18.1	Questionnaire	265
18.1.1	Introduction	265

18.1.2	Characterization of Courses	265
18.1.3	Personality Traits.....	274
18.1.4	Contacts and Working in Teams	275
18.1.5	Team Competence Scales.....	276
18.1.6	Further Team-Related Scales	279
18.2	Qualitative Interview: Guideline	280
