

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	9
CHAPTER I: MYTH AND THE MYTHOPOIEIC APPOROACH	31
A- Myth and Its Functions in the Modern World	31
a- The Controversy Around Myth	32
b- Non-Pejorative Functions Assigned to Myth	39
B- The Mythopoieic Approach	48
a- The Concept of Mythopoieia	49
b- Origin Myths and Narratives about Creating the Cosmos	55
CHAPTER 2: A CONCEPTUAL ANALYSIS OF PREAMBLES	63
A- The Preamble as a Concept	63
B- The Preamble within the Context of Law	75
a- The Preamble Establishing Legitimacy and Persuasion	76
b- The Preamble Introducing Êthos and Kairos	82
C- Legal Preambles and Language	91
a- The Linguistic Aspects of Legal Preambles	92
b- Legal Preambles as Narratives	98
CHAPTER 3: A HISTORICAL ANALYSIS OF CONSTITUTIONAL PREAMBLES	105
A- The Evolution of Legal Preambles	105
a- Ancient and Religious Examples	106
b- Medieval Examples	114
B- Modern Constitutions and Their Preambles	119
a- Constitutionalism as a Civic Myth and Its Written Form	119
b- The First Modern Examples and Their Implications	126
i- The United States	128
ii- The French Tradition	133
c- The Frame of the Existing Examples	145

CHAPTER 4: A HORIZONTAL ANALYSIS OF CONSTITUTIONAL PREAMBLES	157
A- Discursive Strategies for Creating the Cosmos	158
a- The Emergence of a Novelty	159
b- The Qualification of the Constitutional Moment	178
B- The Embodiment of the Extra-Legal Elements	193
a- Utilising External Sources of Significance	194
b- Crystallising the Existing Narratives	204
CONCLUSION	223
BIBLIOGRAPHY	243