

Contents

On the Series — V

Marian Burchardt and Dirk van Laak

1 Making Spaces through Infrastructure – Introduction — 1

I Ordering Places and People: Infrastructure Projects and their Outcomes

Andreas Greiner

2 Intersecting Infrastructures: Imperial Technology and East African Transport Labour, c. 1900 — 21

Mario Peters

3 Playgrounds for Travellers: Infrastructure, Environment, and Spatial Transformation in the Americas, 1880s–1920s — 43

Aurelia Ohlendorf

4 Hydropower for a Modern Afghanistan: Soviet Aid to the Southern Neighbour in the 1960s — 63

Daniel Rothenburg

5 Reformatting a Socionatural Space: The Goulburn-Murray Irrigation District, Australia — 83

II Zones of Negotiation: Infrastructures and Social Practices

Jan Hansen

6 The Zanjās through Different Political Regimes: Infrastructure, Space, and Society in Nineteenth-Century Los Angeles — 111

Mathias Hack

7 Roads for Whom? Tourism and Infrastructure in Post-colonial East Africa — 133

Miriam Pfordte

- 8 Between Worlds: Perceiving the Inner-German Border as Infrastructure, 1945–1990 — 151

Carolin Liebisch-Gümüş

- 9 Fiction and Filter: The Emergence of Airport Transit Zones in the Twentieth Century — 169

Andrea Protschky

- 10 Staying under Bridges, Negotiating Barriers: Unhoused Berliners' Infrastructural Practices between Spatial Exclusion and Precarious Spatial Strategies — 193

III Conflicting Spaces: Infrastructures Old and New

Marian Burchardt and René Umlauf

- 11 Dreams and Realities of Infrastructural Leapfrogging: Airspace, Drone Corridors, and Logistics in African Healthcare — 221

Nick Couldry

- 12 The Space of Datafied Societies: A New Horizon of Colonial Expansion? — 241

List of Abbreviations — 253

List of Contributors — 255

Index — 259