

Contents

Acknowledgements — VII

Introduction: People of the Letter — 1

Chapter 1

The Hebraism of Nietzsche: Metaphysical Critique and the Claims of Language — 8

- I Critique and Consequences — 10
- II Nietzschean Exegesis — 13
- III Worldly Letters — 16
- IV The Way of Interpretation — 20

Chapter 2

Interpretation Beyond Theology — 26

- I Spiritual Letters — 26
- II Interpretive Pluralism — 31
- III Levinasian Commentary — 36
- IV Pragmatism and Disagreement — 43

Chapter 3

Derrida and Judaic Lettrism: Affirming Language, Negating Theology — 50

- I Grammatological Signs — 51
- II From Referential to Inter-Relational Meaning — 59
- III Judaic Lettrism: Inter-Relational Signifiers — 63
- IV Positive Deconstruction and Meaning in Time — 68
- V The Trace of Negative Theology — 75
- VI The Way of Language — 85
- VII A Lettristic Negative Discourse — 90

Chapter 4

Levinasian Un/Saying and The Names of God — 96

- I Lettrism of Divine Names — 100
- II Levinasian Language-Theory: Signifiers- as- Sayers — 106
- III Unsayings and Transcendence — 112

Chapter 5

Two Types of Negative Theology — 118

- I Transcendence of What? The Exclusions of Unity and the Problem of the Body — 120
- II Language Traces — 128

Chapter 6

Gershom Scholem's Language Mysticism — 137

- I Language Ontology — 138
- II Beyond Representation — 141
- III Scholem and Contemporary Linguistic Theory — 148
- IV Critical Metaphysics and Discourses of Writing — 152
- V Hermeneutic Risk — 156
- VI Radiant Echoes — 163
- VII The Gates of Exegesis — 168

Chapter 7

Tzimtzum* — 171

- I Breaking Analogy — 172
- II Reflections on Joseph Soloveitchik — 178
- III Levinas: The Self in Tzimtzum — 182
- IV Tzimtzum as Ethical Selfhood — 184
- V The Language of Tzimtzum — 191

Chapter 8

Discourse Ethics and Normative Difference — 197

- I The Goodness of Particulars — 198
- II Discourse Ethics — 204

Primary Texts and Abbreviations — 217

Index — 235