

1	The Aliens at the Gates of Sociology	1
1.1	The Idea of an 'Exosociology'	1
1.2	Tasks and Aims of Exosociology	5
1.3	The Two Pillars of Exosociology	8
1.3.1	Exosociology as a Temporary Subfield of Futurology	8
1.3.2	Exosociology as Part of a Sociology of Strangeness	12
1.4	Summary: Aims of Exosociology	15
	References	17
2	Thinking About Aliens	19
2.1	Aliens in Modern Times	20
2.2	Locke and Kant on Extraterrestrials	23
2.3	Aliens in Modern Science Fiction	26
2.4	In the Hall of Mirrors	31
	References	35
3	The Earth in Space	37
3.1	The Star Formation Rate	40
3.2	How Many Planets Are There in the Milky Way?	41
3.3	Planets in the Habitable Zone	43
3.4	The Origin of Life	45
3.5	How Does Mind Come into the World?	49
3.6	The Communication Readiness of the Extraterrestrials	53
3.7	The Lifespan of Extraterrestrial Civilizations	55
3.8	Where Are They?	58
	References	61

4	SETI—History, Methods and Presuppositions of the Scientific Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligences	65
4.1	SETI—An Idea and Its History	65
4.2	The Wow Signal	68
4.3	Anthropocentric Presuppositions	70
4.4	General Communication and Understanding Problems	75
4.5	A Brief Conclusion from a Sociological Perspective	78
	References	81
5	SETA—The Search for Extraterrestrial Artifacts	85
5.1	Alien Monoliths	85
5.2	SETA and the Fermi Paradox	87
5.3	Conclusions	93
	References	96
6	Calls in the Dark Forest—Risky Communication Attempts	99
6.1	Messages to Extraterrestrials	99
6.2	Criticism and Potential Risks	103
	References	106
7	Methodological Considerations for the Scenario Analysis of First Contact	109
7.1	The Method of Scenario Analysis	110
7.2	Parameters of the Scenario Analysis of the First Contact	115
7.3	Prognostic Strategies and Problem Situations	121
	References	124
8	Consequences of First Contact—A Scenario Analysis	127
8.1	The Signal Scenario	128
8.1.1	General Parameters	128
8.1.2	Projected Impacts	130
8.1.3	Exemplary Narration	133
8.1.4	Summary Assessment of the Scenario	135
8.2	The Artifact Scenario	136
8.2.1	General Parameters	136
8.2.2	Projected Impacts	138
8.2.3	Exemplary Narration	142
8.2.4	Summary Assessment of the Scenario	145
8.3	The Encounter Scenario	145
8.3.1	General Parameters	145
8.3.2	Projected Impacts	148

8.3.3	Exemplary Narration	156
8.3.4	Summary Assessment of the Scenario	160
8.4	Comparison of Contact Scenarios	161
8.5	Excursus: The Failed First Contact	163
8.5.1	Introduction: The Logic of Failure	163
8.5.2	The Necrology Scenario—Exemplary Narration	165
8.5.3	Conclusion	168
	References	168
9	The Cultural Preparation for the First Contact	173
9.1	General Problems and Deficits	173
9.2	Some Suggestions from the Scientific Debate	180
9.3	Conceivable Strategies for Minimising the Negative Effects of First Contact	186
9.4	Conclusion: Guiding Principles for Preparing for the Initial Contact	195
	References	196
10	Proto-Sociology of Extraterrestrial Civilizations	199
10.1	Postbiological Secondary Civilizations	202
10.2	Biological Primary Civilizations	205
10.3	Peculiarities of Technological Civilizations	219
10.4	Special Case of Hybrid Civilizations	223
	References	226
11	Hot Potato in Scientific Alien Research	229
11.1	Ancient Aliens Hypothesis	230
11.2	The UFO Phenomenon	233
11.3	Alien Abductions	238
11.4	Exosociological Conclusions	242
	References	246
12	Outlook	251
12.1	Looking Back	251
12.2	Looking Ahead	256
12.3	The (Sociological) View Upwards	259
	References	261
	Bibliography	263