

111 Places

- 1___ 3ft 6
Bristol's smallest and friendliest café | 10
- 2___ 20th Century Flicks
The UK's last video shop and smallest multiplex | 12
- 3___ acta Community Theatre
No need to audition | 14
- 4___ Alfred Fagon Statue
A trailblazing actor and playwright | 16
- 5___ Arnos Vale Cemetery
From garden cemetery to wilderness to restoration | 18
- 6___ Averys
Wine from the mists of time | 20
- 7___ The Bag of Nails
The cat pub | 22
- 8___ The Balmoral
Hoping for new nautical adventures | 24
- 9___ The Bearpit
The travails of a sunken roundabout | 26
- 10___ Beese's
Messing about on the river | 28
- 11___ The Black Castle
A weird and wonderful folly | 30
- 12___ Boiling Wells
The clue is in the name | 32
- 13___ Brandy Bottom Colliery
A rare example of a largely forgotten industry | 34
- 14___ Bristol & Bath Railway Path
A daily pedal rather than a daily grind | 36
- 15___ Bristol Bike Project
Love on two wheels | 38
- 16___ Bristol Bus Boycott
A watershed moment for UK civil rights | 40
- 17___ Bristol Castle
Still visible if you look closely | 42
- 18___ Bristol Cathedral Garden
A small oasis of calm | 44

- 19___ Bristol Central Library
Books in breathtaking spaces | 46
- 20___ Bristol County Ground
Reflecting cricket's place in the city | 48
- 21___ Bristol Improv Theatre
The UK's first venue dedicated to improv | 50
- 22___ Bristol Wood Recycling Project
Transforming waste into shared assets | 52
- 23___ Broadmead Baptist Church
The church above the shops | 54
- 24___ Brunel's Buttery
Banging bacon butties | 56
- 25___ Brunel's Other Bridge
An abandoned piece of engineering history | 58
- 26___ Cafe Wall Illusion
An accidental trick of the eye | 60
- 27___ Campus Pool Skatepark
Where skating has replaced splashing | 62
- 28___ Castle Park Pyramid
Going underground | 64
- 29___ Chance & Counters
Fancy a game? | 66
- 30___ Charles Wesley's House
A home of hymns | 68
- 31___ Chatterton's House
Paninis, pasta and poetry | 70
- 32___ Cheers Drive
Bristol's very own Boaty McBoatface | 72
- 33___ Cherry Gardens Bus Stop
You could be waiting a while for a bus here | 74
- 34___ Cider at the Orchard
Enjoy some West Country champagne | 76
- 35___ Circomedia
Run away to join the circus | 78
- 36___ Clifton Rocks Railway
A fun and fascinating funicular | 80
- 37___ Clifton Rock Slide
Polished smooth by generations of bottoms | 82
- 38___ Cross-harbour Ferry
A fun way to get from A to B | 84

- 39___ The Cube
Much more than just a cinema | 86
- 40___ Cumberland Piazza
Under-flyover art | 88
- 41___ Dowry Square
Find yourself in hot water | 90
- 42___ Everard's Printing Works
An Art Nouveau advertisement | 92
- 43___ Elizabeth Blackwell's House
Prejudice-fighting female physician | 94
- 44___ The Exchange
A music venue owned by music fans | 96
- 45___ Felix Road Playground
Get the kids outdoors! | 98
- 46___ Folk House
From working folk to folk music | 100
- 47___ Friendly Records
A vinyl revival | 102
- 48___ Glenside Hospital Museum
Destigmatising mental illness and learning difficulties | 104
- 49___ Glitch
A passion for innovation | 106
- 50___ Goat Gully
Hairy conservationists | 108
- 51___ Goldney Hall Grotto
A subterranean treasure | 110
- 52___ Hart's Bakery
From bondage to bread | 112
- 53___ The High Cross
Can we have it back please? | 114
- 54___ High Kingsdown
A low-rise architectural marvel | 116
- 55___ Horfield Common Urinal
A Moorish-style men's room | 118
- 56___ Incredible Edible
Growing food on street corners | 120
- 57___ Ken Stradling Collection
One man's passion for beautiful objects | 122
- 58___ Kiln Restaurant
Once the hottest place in town | 124

- 59___ The King's Head
A pub interior of national importance | 126
- 60___ Kings Weston Roman Villa
Marooned Roman remains | 128
- 61___ Knowle West Media Centre
Made of straw, but solid as a rock | 130
- 62___ Letterpress Collective
An ancient trade revived | 132
- 63___ Lollypop-Be-Bop
A little bit of magic | 134
- 64___ The 'Loo Lady'
Befriending vulnerable women in need | 136
- 65___ Lord Mayor's Chapel
The only church of its kind in the UK | 138
- 66___ Metalgnu
A metal menagerie | 140
- 67___ Milliners' Guild
A hat for every occasion | 142
- 68___ Mina Road Tunnel
An ever-changing street-art canvas | 144
- 69___ Mr Langford's Plaque
Time waits for no man | 146
- 70___ Napier Square
A one-sided square | 148
- 71___ Nicholas Cage Pub Sign
'Put...the bunny...back...in the box' | 150
- 72___ Nipper Statue
Bristol's most famous musical icon? | 152
- 73___ Palestine Museum
The history of Palestine in a former nightclub | 154
- 74___ The Passenger Shed
A cathedral-like former railway station | 156
- 75___ Paul Dirac Memorial
Better at maths than Einstein | 158
- 76___ Pipe Walk
Water everywhere; no longer a drop to drink | 160
- 77___ Prince Rupert's Gate
A reminder of Bristol's role in the English Civil War | 162
- 78___ Psychopomp
A distillery disguised as a greengrocer's | 164

- 79___ Quakers' Burial Ground
A hermit, lead shot and a runaway car | 166
- 80___ Recession
Retro clothes, records, repartee and more | 168
- 81___ Redland Standing Stone
A mysterious monolith | 170
- 82___ River Frome
Bristol's lost river | 172
- 83___ Room 212
At the heart of Bristol's art scene | 174
- 84___ Royal Fort Garden
A jewel in the heart of the University | 176
- 85___ St Bartholomew's Hospital
Ships and skeletons on a Saxon site | 178
- 86___ St Edith's Well
Only recently rediscovered | 180
- 87___ St Mary le Port
Fans of abandoned spaces? This one's for you! | 182
- 88___ St Philip's Footbridge
The £3m bridge to nowhere | 184
- 89___ St Werburgh's City Farm
Pigs in the city | 186
- 90___ Sea Mills Museum
A memorable use for an old telephone box | 188
- 91___ Secret Industry
Inaccessible to anybody over six inches tall | 190
- 92___ Seven Saints of St Paul's
Honouring seven esteemed legacies | 192
- 93___ Severn Beach Line
Escape to the country | 194
- 94___ South Bristol Berry Maze
Forage for free in the city | 196
- 95___ Stokes Croft China
'Peculiar china for a peculiar society' | 198
- 96___ Sweetmart
The world's flavours under one roof | 200
- 97___ Temple Church
Bristol's own leaning tower of Pisa | 202
- 98___ That Thing
Fabulous festival fashion | 204

- 99___ Thunder Run
18th-century surround sound | 206
- 100___ Tobacco Factory Market
A symbol of regeneration | 208
- 101___ Tramway Rail Monument
A lasting memory of the Bristol Blitz | 210
- 102___ Trinity
Birthplace of the Bristol Sound | 212
- 103___ Troopers Hill
Industrial past, wildlife present | 214
- 104___ Unicorns
Mythical? They're everywhere! | 216
- 105___ UoB Theatre Collection
Centuries-old treasures still inspiring new work | 218
- 106___ Vale Street
The steepest residential road in the UK | 220
- 107___ Wellington T2905 Memorial
Not your usual balloon ride | 222
- 108___ Wellspring Settlement
A vital community resource | 224
- 109___ Westbury College
A castle in miniature | 226
- 110___ The Wicker Nose
An enormous olfactory edifice | 228
- 111___ Zion
Deconsecrated, but far from dead | 230