

Table of Contents

Preface	VII
List of Abbreviations	XIV

Chapter 1: Introduction	1
A. Problem and History of Scholarship	2
B. Matthew and Judaism	10
C. Research Aims and Methodology	22
D. Terminology	23
I. Interpretation(s) and the Phenomenon of Torah Interpretation	23
II. Writing Strategies	24
III. Torah	25
E. Scope and Procedures	25

Chapter 2: Torah Interpretation in Second Temple Judaism	29
A. Texts and Interpretation	30
B. Najman's Second Temple Framework of Torah Interpretation	34
I. Survival of Divine Encounter	34
II. Revelation Inflected by Destruction	41
C. Survival of Divine Encounter and Revelation Inflected by Destruction	43
D. Conclusion	49

Chapter 3: Matthew's Gospel Inflected by Destruction	51
A. Matthew and Israel	53
B. Jesus' Ministry and his Exilic Restoration of Israel	57
I. Four Elements of Exilic Hope	60
1. The coming of a Davidic Messiah	61
2. The Depiction of the Return from Exile in terms of a New Exodus	62
3. The Ingathering of all Twelve Tribes	64
4. The Impact of this Restoration on the Gentiles	68
II. Summary of Key Elements	70
C. The Defilement of the Temple and Matthew's Solution in Jesus	70
D. The Programmatic Statement and the Destruction of the Temple	74
I. (κατα)λύω in Jewish Literature	74
II. (κατα)λύω in Matthew's Programmatic Statement	80
E. Conclusion	90
Chapter 4: Mosaic Discourse	92
A. Mosaic Discourse Defined	94
B. Examples of Mosaic Discourse	99
I. Feature 1: Reworking and Expanding Older Traditions	99
II. Feature 2: Self-Ascribed Status of Torah	102
III. Feature 3: The Re-Presentation of Sinai	104
IV. Feature 4: Pseudonymous Attribution to Moses	106
V. Summary	109
C. Matthew and Mosaic Discourse	109
I. Feature 1: Reworking and Expanding Older Traditions	110
II. Feature 2: Self-Ascribed Status of Torah	119
III. Feature 3: The Re-Presentation of Sinai	122
IV. Feature 4: Pseudonymous Attribution to Moses	123
1. Birth Parallels	124
2. Exodus Parallels	124
3. Sinai Parallels	125

D. Jesus and Moses' Role	125
E. References to Moses in Matthew's Gospel	128
I. Matt 8:1–4	130
II. Matt 17:1–8.....	131
III. Matt 19:1–9.....	133
IV. Matt 22:23–33.....	133
V. Matt 23:2.....	135
F. Conclusion	136

Chapter 5: Torah in the Controversy Stories.....139

A. The Sabbath Controversies: Matt 12:1–14	140
I. Narrative Context	140
II. Analysis of the First Sabbath Controversy: Matt 12:1–8.....	140
III. Analysis of the Second Sabbath Controversy: Matt 12:9–14	145
B. The Hand Washing Controversy: Matt 15:1–20	148
I. Narrative Context	148
II. Analysis of the Hand Washing Controversy: Matthew 15:1–20	148
C. The Controversy over Divorce: Matt 19:1–9	154
I. Narrative Context	154
II. Analysis of the Divorce Controversy: Matt 19:1–9.....	155
D. The Greatest Commandment: Matt 22:34–40	160
I. Narrative Context	160
II. Analysis of the Greatest Commandment: Matt 22:34–40	161
E. Conclusion	167

Chapter 6: Biography and Legitimising the Lawgiver170

A. Polemical Possibilities of the Genre of Ancient βίος	174
I. The Explanatory Nature of Biographical Writing.....	174
II. Examples of Biographical Writing and Polemics.....	179

1. Tacitus' Agricola	180
2. Suetonius' Life of Nero	184
3. Summary	187
B. Philo's Legitimation of Moses and his Torah	188
I. The Polemical Context of Philo's Life of Moses	188
II. Qualifiers, Alterations, and Omissions of the Sources	191
III. Moses' Childhood and Four Abilities	196
1. Moses' Childhood	197
2. Moses' Four Abilities	200
C. Biographical Writing and Mosaic Discourse	201
D. Conclusion	202
 Chapter 7: Matthew and Legitimation	205
A. Matthew's Polemical Context	207
B. Source History and the Development of Jesus Biographical Writing	208
C. Matthew's Added Biographical Details and the Legitimation of Jesus	215
I. Jesus' Genealogy, Matthew 1:1–17	221
II. The Birth of Jesus, Matthew 1:18–25	223
III. Herod and the Magi, Matthew 2:1–12	226
IV. Egypt: There and Back Again, Matthew 2:13–23	228
V. John's Baptism, Matthew 3:1–17	230
VI. The Wilderness Temptation 4:1–11	234
VII. The Beginning of Jesus' Public Career 4:12–25	236
D. The Legitimation of Jesus and the Status of the Torah	238
E. Conclusion	240
 Chapter 8: Conclusion	242
 Bibliography	247

Table of Contents

XIII

Index of References.....263

Index of Authors272

Subject Index.....276