

Table of Contents

Foreword to the English Edition	9
Introduction.....	11
I. Epicureanism in New Testament Times	17
1. Epicurus and Epicureanism	17
1.1 Epicurus and His Garden	18
1.2 Selected Aspects of Epicureanism.....	22
2. Epicureanism in the Light of Pagan Sources	29
2.1 The Preceding Period (1 st Century BCE)	29
2.2 New Testament Era	33
2.2.1 Rome and the Apennine Peninsula	33
2.2.2 Greece and Asia Minor	37
2.2.3 Syria, Palestine and Egypt	39
2.3 Testimonies of Later Authors	42
3. Epicureanism in Jewish Writings	46
3.1 Palestinian Judaism	46
3.2 Judeo-Hellenistic Literature.....	49
3.3 Rabbinic Literature	51
II. The Palestinian Beginnings of the Epicurean Question	59
1. The Sadducees and the Resurrection of the Dead.....	59
1.1 The Testimonies of the Synoptic Gospels	60
1.1.1 Literary and Historical Problems (Mark 12:18–27)	61
1.1.2 The Dispute over the Resurrection	64
1.2 The Testimony of Josephus	68
1.3 The Sources of the Sadducean Denial of the Resurrection.....	72
1.3.1 Sadducism vs. Epicureanism	72
1.3.2 Denial of the Resurrection of the Dead	75
2. The Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5–7) vs. Epicureanism	77
2.1 The Proposals of Hans Dieter Betz.....	78
2.2 The Literary Genre of the Sermon on the Mount	79
2.2.1 Matt 5–7 the Epitome of Jesus' Teaching	80
2.2.2 Verifying Betz's Hypothesis	82

2.3 Anti-Epicurean Elements in Matt 5–7	85
2.3.1 General Characteristics	85
2.3.2 Exemplification (Matt 6:22–23).....	88
III. Confronting the Epicureans and the Stoics in Athens.....	95
1. Paul in Athens (Acts 17:16–34)	98
1.1 The Historical-Salvific Perspective of Acts	99
1.2 Literary Frameworks of the Areopagus Speech.....	102
1.2.1 Debates with the Epicureans and the Stoics (vv. 16–21).....	102
1.2.2 Ambivalent Reaction of the Audience (vv. 32–34)	108
2. Paul's Areopagitica (Acts 17:22–31)	111
2.1 Literary Issues of the Areopagus Speech	111
2.2 The Theology of the Areopagus Speech	114
2.2.1 The Message of "An Unknown God" (vv. 22–23)	114
2.2.2 The Message about the True God (vv. 24–29)	115
a) God the Creator of the Cosmos (vv. 24–25).....	116
b) God the Creator of Mankind (vv. 26–28)	118
c) Man's Divine Dignity (v. 29)	123
2.2.3 The Call to Repent (vv. 30–31).....	124
3. Luke's Perspective: History and Paradigm.....	128
3.1 The Historical Reliability of Acts 17:16–34.....	128
3.2 The Christian Message in the Pagan World.....	130
3.2.1 A Missionary Speech to Pagan Audiences	131
3.2.2 A Programmatic Encounter of Cultures and Religions.....	135
3.2.3 The Function of Philosophical Schools	139
3.3 Christianity vs. Epicureanism	142
3.3.1 The Areopagus Speech vs. the Philosophy of Epicurus	142
3.3.2 The Epicureans' Attitude towards the Christian Message.....	148
IV. Epicurean Infiltrations in the Pauline Communities	151
1. Corpus Paulinum vs. Epicurus' Philosophy.....	151
1.1 Norman W. DeWitt's Pan-Epicureanism.....	152
1.2 Contemporary Research Lines	154
2. First Thessalonians vs. Epicurean Rhetoric	157
2.1 The Concern of the Thessalonians about the Fate of the Dead	157
2.2 Anti-Epicurean Terminology and Rhetoric (1 Thess)	159
3. Were the Sources of the Corinthians' Licentiousness Epicurean?	163
3.1 The Corinthian Community and its Problems.....	164
3.2 Moral Disorder in the Corinthian Church	167
3.2.1 Libertinism and Sexual Immorality (1 Cor 5–6)	167

3.2.2 Fornication (1 Cor 6:12–20)	168
3.3 Religious Sources of the Immorality in the Corinthian Church	171
4. The Corinthian Opponents of the Resurrection (1 Cor 15).....	175
4.1 Leading Opinions on the Corinthian Deniers of the Resurrection ..	176
4.2 Literary Issues in 1 Cor 15	180
4.3 The Apology of the Resurrection of the Dead in 1 Cor 15	186
4.3.1 The Risen Christ (vv. 1–11)	186
4.3.2 The Resurrection of the Dead (vv. 12–34)	188
4.3.3 The Resurrection of the Body (vv. 35–50)	195
4.3.4 The Mystery of the Last Day (vv. 51–58)	198
4.4 The Corinthian denial of the resurrection	199
4.4.1 Systematising the Data of 1 Cor 15	200
4.4.2 Elements of Anti-Epicurean Polemic	204
V. The Context of the Debate over the Parousia in 2 Peter	211
1. The Christian Community in a Time of Trial	212
1.1 Literary Problems of 2 Peter	212
1.2 The Problem of the False Teachers	214
1.3 Christian Orthodoxy and Orthopraxy.....	219
2. The Apology of the Parousia and the Day of Judgement (2 Pet 3:1–13) ..	221
2.1 The Structure of the Apologetic Section (3:1–13).....	221
2.2 Exegetical Commentary	223
2.2.1 The Unfulfilled Promise (vv. 3–4)	223
2.2.2 The Sovereignty of God (vv. 5–7)	226
2.2.3 The Inevitability of the Day of the Lord (vv. 8–10).....	228
2.2.4 New Heavens and a New Earth (vv. 11–13)	234
2.3 Anti-Epicurean Elements of the Apology of the Parousia	236
3. The Apology of Christian Morality	238
3.1 Called to Communion with God	239
3.2 The Immoral Attitude of the False Teachers	240
3.2.1 The Libertinism of the False Teachers	241
3.2.2 Meanders of a Pleasant Life	244
3.3 Elements of Anti-Epicurean Polemic	246
VI. The Motif of the Anti-Epicurean Polemic in the
New Testament	251
1. The General Characteristics of Anti-Epicurean Polemics	251
2. A Historical Outline of the NT Anti-Epicurean Polemic.....	257
2.1 The Biblical and Jewish Beginnings of Christianity	257
2.2 Encountering the Hellenistic-Roman World	259
2.3 First Christian Apologists	262

- 3. The Theological Dimension of the NT Anti-Epicurean Polemic..... 263
 - 3.1 The Resurrection of the Dead 264
 - 3.2 God and His Providence 268
 - 3.3 The Parousia and Judgement over the World 269
- Conclusion 273
- Abbreviations 277
 - Greek and Latin Writings 277
 - Jewish Writings 278
 - Christian Writings 279
 - Journals and Series 279
 - Others 281
- Bibliography 283
 - Bible Editions 283
 - Greek and Latin Sources 283
 - Jewish Sources 285
 - Other Works Cited 285
- Indices 307
 - Bible 307
 - Old Testament 307
 - New Testament 310
 - Ancient Writings 324
 - Greek and Latin 324
 - Jewish..... 328
 - Christian..... 331
 - Modern Authors 332