a)	German Utility Models	131
4.	Before Which Division Should Action Be Brought?	133
a)	Seize the Central Division or a Regional/Local Division?	133
aa)	Referring a Counterclaim for Revocation Without Suspending the Action.	133
bb)	Composition of UPC’s Divisions	134
b)	Which Regional/Local Division to Choose?	134
5.	Other Considerations	135
a)	Choosing the Language of the Patent Application	135
b)	Licensees’ Legal Capacity to Bring Action.	135
III.	Strategic Considerations for (Potential) Patent Infringers	136
a)	Prior Usage and Defensive Publications	136

b) Opposition and Revocation Proceedings	137
Section 2: Legal Foundations.	139
(Aloys Hüttermann)
Chapter 7: Legal Foundations of the Unified Patent Court	139
I. Applicable Substantive Law	140
1. Is the European Convention on Human Rights Applicable?.	142
2. Applicable Law After an Opt-Out	143
3. Rights Arising from a Patent	143
a) Limitations on Patent Protection	144
b) Prior Use and Exhaustion of Rights	145
4. Regulations Relating to the Parties to an Action.	146
a) Presumption of Ownership	146
b) Legal Capacity to Bring Patent Infringement Actions	146
c) Legal Capacity to Bring Revocation Actions	146
d) Multiple Plaintiffs/Defendants	147
e) Change of Party	147
aa) Procedure of Transferring a Patent in Dispute	147
bb) Procedure in Case of Death or Insolvency	147
cc) Peculiarities of Actions for Revocation (?)	148
f) Intervention Procedure	148
5. Interpreting the Patent	148
II. Legal Consequences of a Patent Infringement	149
1. Period of Limitation	150
2. Powers of the Court.	150

4. How Should the Argumentation Be Structured?	231
5. Argumentation Regarding Injunction and Damages	231
Section 4: Appeal Proceedings	233
(Aloys Hüttermann)
Chapter 11: Overview of the Appeal Proceeding	233
I. Appeals Not Requiring Leave	234
II. Appeals Requiring Leave	234
1. Decision of the Panel of First Instance	234
2. Appeal Requiring Leave During an Ongoing Proceeding	235
a) Case A): The First Instance Panel Grants Leave to the Appeal	235
b) Case B) The First Instance Panel Refuses Leave for the Appeal	235
III. Appeals Against Cost Decisions	236
IV. Non-Appealable Decisions	237
V. Application for Suspensive Effect	237
VI. Course of the Proceeding	237
1. Written Procedure	237

Contents

a) Contents of the Formal Appeal	237
b) Statement of Grounds of Appeal	238
c) Examination as to Formal Requirements	238
d) Respondent's Statement of Response	239
e) Course of the Proceeding When a Cross-Appeal is Lodged	239
f) Further Course of the Proceeding	240
2. Referrals to the Full Court	240
3. Interim Procedure and Oral Hearing	241
VII. Decisions of the Court of Appeals	241
Chapter 12: Strategic Considerations for Appeals	242
I. Appeals During Ongoing Proceedings?	242
II. Appeals Against Final Decisions?	243
III. Strategies for the Appeal Proceeding	243
1. Should a Cross-Claim Be Brought?	243
2. Should Suspensive Effect of the Appeal Be Applied For?	243
3. Organizational Aspects.	244
Section 5: Other Types of Proceedings	245
(Aloys Hüttermann)
Chapter 13: Description of Other Types of Proceedings	245
I. Revocation Actions	245
1. Lodging the Statement for Revocation	246
a) Entitlement to Bring the Action; Language Used	246
b) Partial Challenge to the Disputed Patent	247
2. Course of the Proceeding	247
3. Revocation Actions in Parallel with Infringement Proceedings	249
4. Revocation Actions and Parallel Opposition or Limitation Proceedings	249
II. Actions for Declaration of Non-Infringement	250
1. Lodging the Statement for a Declaration of Non-Infringement	251
2. Written Procedure.	251
3. Retroactively Lodged Infringements Actions	252
