

Contents

Patrizia Anesa & Jan Engberg

Investigating legal discourse in the digital landscape — 1

Mary C. Lavissière

Contract macrodivisions and the digital age — 11

Laura Clemenzi, Francesca Fusco, Daniele Fusi & Giulia Lombardi

Processing of personal data in Court Proceedings: A model for linguistic and legal studies — 35

Alessandra Lombardi & Karin Luttermann

Legal specialists telling their stories on the internet: A comparative analysis of professional self-portrayals on German and Italian law firm websites — 53

Giuliana Diani

Stance features in legal blogging — 67

Daniel Greineder & Dieter Stein

The Internet as a game changer in legal communication: Arbitration on the move — 85

Jekaterina Nikitina

Linguistic markers of participation in international criminal trials — 97

Katia Peruzzo & Federica Scarpa

Making national immigration and asylum case law accessible to a non-Italian audience: The role of intra-lingual translation — 121

Farida Buniatova

Screening the law: Popularization practices in “How To Get Away With Murder” — 143

About the authors — 155

Index — 159