

Contents

About the Author — VII

Preface and Acknowledgments — IX

Chapter 1

Introduction — 1

- 1.1 A Brief History of Protests Since the 1979 Revolution — 1
- 1.2 Resistance to Khomeini's Dictatorship, 1979 – 1981 — 2
- 1.3 Resistance and Mass Protests, 1982 – 2023 — 4
  - 1.3.1 May 1992, Mashhad — 4
  - 1.3.2 April 1995, Islamshahr — 5
  - 1.3.3 November 1998, Mass Protests at Funeral of Dariush and Parvaneh Forouhar — 5
  - 1.3.4 July 1999, Pro-democracy Student Protests — 6
  - 1.3.5 June 2003, Pro-democracy Student Protests — 7
  - 1.3.6 2009 – 2010, The Green Movement — 7
  - 1.3.7 December 2017–January 2018, Mass Protest — 7
  - 1.3.8 November 2019, Mass Protests Against Gasoline Prices — 8
  - 1.3.9 January 2020 Civil Society Protests — 9
  - 1.3.10 September 2022 – 2023, Mass Protests to Overthrow — 9
- 1.4 On the Nature of the Fundamentalist Regime — 10
- 1.5 Intra-elite Factionalism — 24

Chapter 2

The Green Movement, 2009 – 2010 — 30

- 2.1 What was the Fight About? Distribution of Power and the Proper Role of the Supreme Leader — 30
- 2.2 Supporters of Ahmadinejad's Reelection — 37
  - 2.2.1 The Supreme Leader, Ali Khamenei — 37
  - 2.2.2 IRGC and Basij — 38
  - 2.2.3 Ayatollah Mesbah Yazdi and His Supporters — 47
  - 2.2.4 Mojtaba Khamenei and Succession — 48
  - 2.2.5 Hardline Fundamentalists Who Oppose Détente with the United States — 51
  - 2.2.6 Ahmadinejad's Inner Circle — 53
- 2.3 Opponents of Ahmadinejad — 54
  - 2.3.1 Ayatollah Ali Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani — 54

- 2.3.2 Reformists Elements of the Oligarchy — 56
- 2.3.3 Hojatolislam Mehdi Karrubi — 60
- 2.3.4 Mir-Hussein Moussavi — 61
- 2.3.5 The Youth Social Base Who Voted for Moussavi — 65
- 2.3.6 Secular Modern Middle Classes — 67
- 2.3.7 The Solid Opposition — 68
- 2.4 From Difference to Conflict — 70
- 2.4.1 July 9 Protests — 71
- 2.4.2 Hashemi Rafsanjani's July 17 Speech — 72
- 2.4.3 The Social Sciences and Show Trials — 76
- 2.4.4 September 18, 2009, Qods Day — 78
- 2.4.5 November 4, 2009, the Anniversary of Taking Americans Hostage — 79
- 2.4.6 December, National Student Day, Death of Grand Ayatollah Montazeri, and Ashura — 81
- 2.4.7 From Ashura to February 11: Crisis, Paralysis, and Response — 87
- 2.4.8 May 1, 2010, International Workers' Day, and May 2, 2010, National Teachers' Day — 99
- 2.4.9 June 2010 — 100
- 2.4.10 February 2011, Revival of the Green Movement and Arrests of Moussavi and Karrubi — 103
- 2.4.11 Conflict Between Ahmadinejad and Khamenei — 105
- 2.4.12 Political Paralysis — 107
- 2.5 Conclusion — 112

Chapter 3

Mass Protests, December 2017–January 2018 — 114

- 3.1 Causes — 116
- 3.2 Policy Ramifications — 117

Chapter 4

The Political Situation in 2022 — 119

- 4.1 Crisis of Legitimacy — 119
- 4.2 Crisis of Succession to the Supreme Leader — 121
- 4.3 Economic Crisis — 123

Chapter 5

Woman, Life, Freedom, the 2022–2023 Mass Protests — 133

- 5.1 The Straws Before the Final Straw that Broke the Camel's Back — 134
- 5.2 Women's Oppression Under the Fundamentalist Regime — 135

5.3	The Emergence of Prominent Female Leaders —	136
5.3.1	Shirin Ebadi —	136
5.3.2	Nasrin Sotoudeh —	137
5.3.3	Narges Mohammadi —	137
5.3.4	Parastoo Forouhar —	137
5.3.5	Darya Safai —	138
5.3.6	Masih Alinejad —	138
5.3.7	Sepideh Gholian —	139
5.3.8	Atena Daemi —	140
5.3.9	Faezeh Hashemi Rafsanjani —	140
5.4	Brilliant Women as Role Models —	140
5.5	Courage Under Repression by Men —	141
5.6	2019 – 2022: The Worst Years for Fundamentalist Intelligence Agencies and Military Apparatuses —	145
5.7	Celebrities Speak Up —	148
5.8	The Role of Satellite Television and Social Media —	150
5.8.1	Iran International Television —	151
5.8.2	Voice of America Television and Radio Farda —	155
5.9	The Final Straw —	156
5.10	Chronology of the 2022 – 2023 Mass Protests —	157
5.11	Characteristics —	167
5.11.1	Women's Revolution —	171
5.11.2	Widespread Participation by Young Women —	171
5.11.3	Youth's Revolution —	173
5.11.4	Ethno-sectarian Minorities as Pillars of a Pluralistic Iran —	173
5.11.5	From Small Towns and Rural Areas to Large Cities —	176
5.11.6	Multi-class Mass Participation —	176
5.11.7	Monarchists Vs. Democrats —	179
5.11.8	Slogans of the Protesters —	191

Chapter 6

Conclusion: Regime Survival or Regime Collapse — 195

6.1	The Election of Ebrahim Raisi to the Presidency: Hardline Solution to Crises or the Final Nail in the Coffin? —	200
6.2	Policy Ramifications —	202
6.2.1	Pro-IRI Lobby Groups and Individuals —	203
6.2.2	The Obama Presidency: Costs of Appeasement —	209
6.2.3	The Biden Presidency: Respite or Reprieve? —	210
6.2.4	China, Russia, and the E.U. —	212

- 6.3 Conclusion — 213
- 6.3.1 Possible Outcomes of the Mass Protests — 214
- 6.3.1.1 Hardline Policies and Outcomes — 215
- 6.3.1.1.1 Successful Crushing of the Mass Protests — 215
- 6.3.1.1.2 Unsuccessful Crushing of the Mass Protests — 215
- 6.3.1.1.3 Successful Repression and Policy Reversal — 216
- 6.3.1.1.4 Nuclear Panacea — 217
- 6.3.1.1.5 Regime Collapse after Khamenei Dies — 219
- 6.3.1.2 Reformist Policy — 219
- 6.3.1.3 Reza Pahlavi and the Monarchists — 220
- 6.3.1.4 The Iranian Democrats and the Transition to Democracy — 221
- 6.3.2 Policy Ramifications for Democratic Countries — 222

Bibliography — 225

Index — 253