

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD

Dr. Martin Wikelski, Director,
Max Planck Institute for Ornithology

i

INTRODUCTION: WHY TODAY'S LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD HAS A SMARTPHONE IN HER BASKET

An Old Story in a New Light

1

WHY WE ARE NOW NOTHING MORE THAN BEAUTIFUL SOULS

In the Labyrinth of a Postmodern Awareness of Nature

16

WHY WE KNOW WHETHER A SWALLOW IS FRIGHTENED IN A STORM

What Really Happens on the Animal Internet

43

WHY WE SHOULD CARE IF A FROG WANDERS AROUND IN CHINA

The New Generation of Working Animals

57

WHY ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT HASN'T LOGGED OFF YET ...

The People Behind the Animal Internet

71

... AND WHY "PROBLEM BEAR" BRUNO MIGHT STILL BE ALIVE TODAY

On New Forms of Coexistence

82

WHY TECHNOLOGY IS NOT ALL BAD, AND NATURE NOT ALL GOOD

Data Protection for Animals and the Positive Sides of Transparency

93

WHY ANIMALS WERE ALWAYS FRIENDS OF HUMANS

A Little Story of Empathy

105

WHY THE INTERNET IS CRAWLING WITH CATS

The Internet As a Shared Space of Being 129

WHY AFTER NATURE, NATURE WILL STILL EXIST

Humans and Animals in the Anthropocene

153

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

179

NOTES

181

BIBLIOGRAPHY

197

INDEX

201