PART A - STRATEGY

Chapter 1: Paper D Part I - Legal Questions

1.1	General comments.	1
1.2	How to tackle the questions.	2
1.2.1	Time management – understanding the question.	2
1.2.2	Finding the answer.	3
1.2.3	Writing the answer.	4
1.3	Calculating time limits.	6
1.3.1	Calculating time limits under the EPC.	6
1.3.2	Calculating time limits under the PCT.	9
1.4	Preserving the rights of an applicant, proprietor or opponent that have apparently been lost under the EPC.	10
1.4.1	Was notification sent to the correct address?	10
1.4.2	Can the time limit be extended?	10
1.4.3	Is a grace period available?	10
1.4.4	Can further processing be applied?	10
1.4.5	Can re-establishment be applied?	11
1.4.6	Can proceedings be interrupted?	11
1.4.7	Can the good faith principle be invoked?	11
1.4.8	Can an appeal be filed?	11
1.4.9	Is conversion of a European patent application possible?	12
1.4.10	Can the failure to pay a fee on time be excused?	12
1.4.11	Can the late arrival of a document sent by postal services in good time be excused?	12
1.4.12	Can a new application be filed?	12
1.5	Preserving the rights of an applicant that have apparently been lost under the PCT.	13
1.5.1	Can the time limit be extended?	13
1.5.2	Is a grace period available?	13
1.5.3	Can the late arrival of a document posted in good time be excused?	13
1.5.4	Can a loss of rights be excused by a national/regional office?	13
1.5.5	Can the application be re-instated where the national phase is not entered on time?	14
1.6	Enlarged Board Decisions.	14
1.7	Miscellaneous points of interest.	42
1.7.1	Divisional applications.	42
1.7.2	The prior art effects of a published European patent application.	47
1.7.3	Renewal fees.	53
1.7.4	Incorporation by reference.	58
1.7.5	The filing of an application and its filing date.	61
1.7.6	Filing of documents – Languages and fee reductions.	62
1.7.7	Filing of documents – other considerations.	66

1.7.8	The prohibition of reformatio in peius	70
1.7.9	The nature of opposition proceedings – in what way do they differ from grant proceedings?	72
1.7.10	The nature of appeal proceedings – in what way do they differ from first instance proceedings?	76
1.7.11	Entering the EPO regional phase with a Euro-PCT application	79
1.7.12	Interlocutory aspects of EPO procedure	87
1.8	Transitional provisions EPC1973/EPC2000	90
1.9	Worked examples – Paper D1 2012	93

Chapter 2: Paper D Part II - Legal Opinion

2.1	General comments	105
2.2	How to tackle each question	107
2.2.1	Preparing a time line	107
2.2.2	Analysing the paper by considering the patentability of each invention	108
2.2.3	Points to consider when an application for an invention has been filed	109
2.2.4	Points to consider where an application for an invention has not been filed	111
2.2.5	What national rights are therefore obtainable by the client and might be used to keep competitors off the market?	111
2.2.6	What national rights are therefore obtainable by any competitor which might limit your client's commercial freedom?	112
2.2.7	Answering the paper	112
2.3	Relevant timeline events for European and Euro-PCT applications	113
2.3.1	Regular European patent application	113
2.3.2	European patent application filed via the PCT	114
2.4	Aspects of US and Japanese patent law	114
2.5	Notes on claiming priority	115
2.5.1	Relevance of the Paris Convention to European and Euro-PCT applications	116
2.5.2	The importance of naming the correct applicant	116
2.5.3	The importance of the “first filing”	117
2.5.4	The limited circumstances in which priority may be claimed from a second or subsequent filing	117
2.5.5	Illustrative examples of how priority works in relation to the first filing	118
2.5.6	Examples of questions relating to the claiming of priority from a first filing in the EQE	121
2.6	Worked example – Paper D2 2012	121
2.6.1	First reading and initial thoughts	122
2.6.2	Generating a list of dates (Q1–3)	134
2.6.3	Chronological list of dates (Q1–3)	134
2.6.4	Expanded chronological list of dates (Q1–3)	134
2.6.5	Drawing up a timeline (Q1–3)	135
2.6.6	Analysis of patent rights (Q1–3)	137
2.6.7	Possible answer (Q1–3)	140
2.6.8	Possible answer (Q4)	143

Chapter 3: Pre-examination - Legal Questions

3.1	Overview	146
3.2	Worked examples	146

PART B - THE EPC

Chapter 4: The EPC and EPO

4.1	European patents	155
4.2	The European Patent Organisation	155

4.2.1	Foundation of the Organisation.	155
4.2.2	Structure of the Organisation.	155
4.2.3	Purpose of the Organisation.	155
4.3	The European Patent Office and its employees	155
4.3.1	Location of the European Patent Office and its sub-offices	155
4.3.2	President of the European Patent Office and his duties	156
4.3.3	Appointment of senior EPO employees.	156
4.3.4	Employees not to disclose or make use of confidential information	156
4.3.5	Disputes between the Organisation and the employees of the European Patent Office	157
4.4	The departments of the European Patent Office	157
4.4.1	The departments entrusted with the procedure	157
4.4.2	Administrative structure of the EPO.	157
4.5	The Receiving Section.	157
4.6	The Search Divisions.	157
4.7	The Examining Divisions	158
4.8	The Opposition Divisions	159
4.9	The Legal Division	159
4.10	The Boards of Appeal and the Enlarged Board of Appeal	160
4.10.1	Composition of the Board of Appeal	160
4.10.2	Organisation of the Boards of Appeal.	161
4.10.3	Enlarged Board of Appeal	162
4.10.4	Independence and exclusion of Board of Appeal members.	162
4.10.5	Adoption of Rules of Procedure by the Boards of Appeal and the Enlarged Board	162
4.10.6	Exclusion and objection	163
4.11	The Administrative Council.	163

Chapter 5: The Invention

5.1	What is not an invention for the purposes of the EPC?	164
5.1.1	Requirement for technical subject matter	164
5.1.2	Discoveries.	164
5.1.3	Scientific theories and mathematical methods	164
5.1.4	Aesthetic creations.	164
5.1.5	Scheme, rule or method for performing a mental act.	165
5.1.6	Scheme, rule or method for playing games	165
5.1.7	Scheme, rule or method for doing business	165
5.1.8	Computer programs	165
5.1.9	Presentation of information	166
5.2	What inventions are barred from patentability?	166
5.2.1	Morality exemption.	166
5.2.2	Plant varieties.	167
5.2.3	Animal varieties	167
5.2.4	Essentially biological processes	168
5.2.5	Method of treatment or diagnosis exclusion – general points.	169
5.2.6	Method of treatment of the human or animal body by therapy.	169
5.2.7	Method of treatment of the human or animal body by surgery	170
5.2.8	Diagnostic method practiced on the human or animal body	171
5.3	What is a patentable invention?	172
5.4	Which inventions are susceptible of industrial application?	172
5.5	Which inventions are new?	172
5.5.1	Definition of novelty.	172
5.5.2	The state of the art includes earlier disclosures.	172
5.5.3	The state of the art includes the contents of earlier European patent applications.	173
5.5.4	Under what circumstances is something “made available to the public”?	173
5.5.5	Judging the content of what has been made available	174

5.5.6	Judging whether the content of what has been made available is prejudicial to novelty.....	175
5.5.7	First medical use	175
5.5.8	Second medical use	175
5.5.9	Second non-medical use	177
5.5.10	Abusive disclosure exemption	177
5.5.11	Exhibition exemption	177
5.5.12	Novelty of selection inventions	178
5.6	Which inventions involve an inventive step?	179
5.6.1	Definition of inventive step	179
5.6.2	Problem-solution approach	179
5.6.3	The skilled person and common general knowledge	180
5.6.4	Considerations when asking whether the invention is obvious	180
5.6.5	Inventive step based on an unexpected advantage	180
5.6.6	Further indicators of inventive step.....	181

Chapter 6: The Application

6.1	Elements of the application	182
6.2	General and physical requirements of the application.....	182
6.2.1	Prohibited matter.....	182
6.2.2	Presentation of the application documents.....	182
6.3	Requirements relating to the request.....	182
6.3.1	Use of a specified form	182
6.3.2	Drawings not allowed.....	182
6.3.3	Petition for grant	182
6.3.4	Details of the applicant	182
6.3.5	Details of any representative	183
6.3.6	Designation of the inventor	183
6.3.7	Title of the invention.....	183
6.3.8	Priority claim.....	183
6.3.9	Indication of divisional status.....	183
6.3.10	Indication that application is a replacement application	183
6.3.11	Figure of the drawings to be published with the abstract	184
6.3.12	List of documents accompanying the request.....	184
6.3.13	Signature.....	184
6.3.14	Correction of the request	184
6.4	Requirements relating to the description	184
6.4.1	Need for a sufficient disclosure	184
6.4.2	Content of the description	185
6.4.3	Order of presentation of the content of the description	185
6.4.4	Description not to contain drawings.....	185
6.5	Requirements relating to the claims.....	185
6.5.1	Requirement for clarity, conciseness and support	186
6.5.2	Claims to define matter the applicant seeks to protect	186
6.5.3	Situations in which two-part form is required	186
6.5.4	Number and type of claims allowed	186
6.5.5	Numbering of the claims	187
6.5.6	Omnibus claims generally not allowed	187
6.5.7	References in claims to reference signs in figures.....	187
6.5.8	Unity of invention.....	187
6.5.9	Allowability of disclaimers.....	187
6.5.10	Functional features	188
6.5.11	Claims not to contain drawings	188
6.6	Requirements relating to the abstract	188
6.7	Requirements relating to the drawings	188
6.8	Requirements relating to any priority claim.....	189
6.8.1	Relevance of the Paris Convention	189
6.8.2	Who may make a claim to priority?.....	189
6.8.3	Length of priority period	189

6.8.4	Priority claim to be in respect of the same invention.	190
6.8.5	What kind of application may be used as a basis for claiming priority? .	190
6.8.6	Procedure for claiming priority – declaration.	191
6.8.7	Procedure for claiming priority – certified copy	192
6.8.8	Procedure for claiming priority – translation	193
6.8.9	Can one application claim more than one priority?	193
6.8.10	Can one priority be claimed in more than one application?	194
6.8.11	Effect of priority right.	194
6.8.12	Obligation to file copies of search results when claiming priority.	194
6.9	Requirements relating to the designation of the inventor	194
6.10	Language requirements of the application	195
6.10.1	Acceptable languages of filing	195
6.10.2	Requirement for a translation.	195
6.10.3	Languages of filing under EPC1973	195
6.10.4	Languages accepted if filing at a national office	195
6.10.5	Language of a divisional application or a replacement application.	195
6.11	Requirements relating to biotechnological inventions.	196
6.11.1	Sequence listings	196
6.11.2	Deposit of biological material	196
6.12	Special requirements for divisional applications.	197

Chapter 7: Filing a European Patent Application

7.1	Who is entitled to file a European patent application?	198
7.2	Where may a European patent application be filed?	198
7.2.1	Where to file a regular European patent application	198
7.2.2	Where to file a divisional application.	198
7.2.3	Where to file a replacement application under Art. 61(1)(b).	198
7.2.4	Restrictions on the filing of European patent applications under national law	199
7.2.5	Procedure where the application is filed with a national office – time limit for forwarding to the EPO	199
7.3	Manner of filing the application.	199
7.3.1	Filing in writing by post or by hand	199
7.3.2	Filing by fax	199
7.3.3	Filing electronically.	200
7.3.4	Filing by other means	200
7.4	Filing a Divisional application	200
7.4.1	Up to what point in time can a divisional application be filed?	200
7.4.2	A divisional application may be filed in respect of any pending earlier European patent application.	200
7.4.3	On what kind of application can a divisional be based?	201
7.4.4	Who is entitled to file a divisional application?	202
7.5	Filing a replacement application.	202
7.6	Requirement to pay a filing fee, a search fee and claims fees.	202
7.6.1	Filing fee.	202
7.6.2	Reduction of the filing fee if using an official language of a contracting state.	203
7.6.3	Search fee	203
7.6.4	Claims fees	204
7.6.5	Fees for divisional applications	204
7.6.6	Fees for replacement applications	204
7.7	Designation of Contracting States	205
7.8	Extension of a European patent.	206
7.9	Validation of a European patent.	206
7.10	Requirement to file copies of search results relating to a priority application	207

Chapter 8: Examination on Filing

8.1	Procedure on receipt of a new application	208
8.2	Examination as to whether a filing date can be accorded	208
8.2.1	Requirements for a filing date	208
8.2.2	Need for a certified copy of the previous application if filing by reference	208
8.2.3	Need for a translation of the previous application if filing by reference .	209
8.2.4	Procedure where a filing date cannot be accorded	209
8.2.5	Filing date in the case of a divisional application or replacement application	210
8.3	Filing date where pages of the application are subsequently filed	210
8.3.1	Adding missing parts of the description and missing drawings with redating of the application	210
8.3.2	Adding missing parts of the description and missing drawings without redating of the application – applications filed before 01 November 2022.	211
8.3.3	Adding missing parts of the description and missing drawings without redating of the application – applications filed on or after 01 November 2022.	212
8.3.4	Replacing erroneously filed application documents, or parts thereof, with or without redating – applications filed on or after 01 November 2022.	213
8.4	Procedure where a filing date can be accorded – examination of formal requirements.	214
8.4.1	Determination as to whether any necessary translation has been filed . .	214
8.4.2	Request, description, claims, drawings and abstract	215
8.4.3	Designation of the inventor	215
8.4.4	Priority claim	216
8.4.5	Representation and authorisation	216
8.4.6	Filing and search fees.	217
8.4.7	Claims fees	217
8.4.8	Sequence listings	217
8.4.9	Other matters.	218

Chapter 9: The Search Report and Opinion

9.1	The EPO must draw up a search report for each European patent application	219
9.2	Procedure where a plurality of independent claims exist	219
9.3	Procedure where a meaningful search is not possible	219
9.4	Procedure where the application lacks unity	220
9.5	Establishing of the definitive content of the abstract.	220
9.6	Patent classification used by the EPO.	221
9.7	Accelerated search	221
9.8	The European Search Report	221
9.8.1	Content of the search report.	221
9.8.2	Language of the search report	221
9.8.3	Additional copies of citations.	222
9.9	The extended European Search Report	222
9.10	Transmittal of the search report, search opinion and definitive content of the abstract.	222
9.11	Requirement to file a response to the extended European search report. .	222
9.12	One chance for submission of voluntary amendments in response to extended European search report.	223

Chapter 10: Publication of the Application and Search Report

10.1	Timing of publication	224
10.2	No publication to take place when the application is withdrawn or refused.	224

10.3	Language and form of the publication.	224
10.4	Contents of the publication	224
10.5	Matter excluded from the publication	225

Chapter 11: Request for Examination, Designation Fee, Extension Fees and Validation Fees

11.1	Communication to the applicant of the date on which the Bulletin mentions the publication of the search report	226
11.2	Payment of the designation fee.	226
11.2.1	Designation fee for a regular European patent application	226
11.2.2	Designation fee for a divisional application	226
11.2.3	Designation fee for a replacement application	226
11.3	Payment of extension fees.	227
11.4	Payment of validation fees	227
11.5	Request for examination	228
11.5.1	Examination must be requested	228
11.5.2	Time limit for requesting examination	228
11.5.3	Payment of an examination fee.	228
11.5.4	Consequences of not requesting examination.	228
11.5.5	Refund of the examination fee	229
11.5.6	Language of the request for examination – fee reduction	230
11.6	A request for examination filed before transmittal of the search report must usually be confirmed	230
11.7	Assumption of responsibility by the Examining Division	231

Chapter 12: Substantive Examination

12.1	Formal written procedure.	232
12.2	Informal consultations by telephone, videoconference or e-mail.	233
12.3	Procedure of the Examining Division in the case of an incomplete search	233
12.4	Further searches.	234
12.5	Auxiliary requests	234
12.6	Double patenting.	235
12.7	Accelerated procedure.	235
12.8	Request for information concerning prior art	236
12.9	Refusal of the application	236

Chapter 13: Allowance and Grant

13.1	Circumstances in which a patent is granted	237
13.2	Approval of the text for grant, payment of fees and filing of claim translations	237
13.2.1	Communication from the Examining Division under r.71(3).	237
13.2.2	Consequences of not responding fully to the r.71(3) communication . . .	238
13.2.3	Implicit approval of the text by payment of fees and filing of translations	238
13.2.4	Procedure where the proposed text is not acceptable to the applicant. . .	238
13.2.5	Refund of grant and publishing fee	239
13.3	Between approval of the text and a decision to grant.	239
13.4	Decision to grant	240
13.5	The decision to grant takes effect on publication of the mention of grant in the Bulletin.	240
13.6	No publication of the mention of grant until designation or renewal fees have been paid	240
13.7	Publication of the specification of the granted patent	241
13.8	Grant to different applicants	241
13.9	Issue of a certificate	241
13.10	Validation in contracting States	242
13.11	Registration of the granted patent	242

13.12	Validation in non-contracting States	242
Chapter 14: European Patent with Unitary Effect
14.1	Abbreviations.	243
14.2	Status of the Unitary Patent Regulation in relation to the PC, PCT and EPC.	243
14.3	New institutions	243
14.3.1	Select Committee of the Administrative Council.	243
14.3.2	Unitary Patent Protection Division of the EPO	244
14.4	A Unitary Patent may only be granted for participating EU states in which the Unified Patent Court has jurisdiction	244
14.5	A unitary patent may only be granted for a European patent granted after the date of application of the Unitary Patent Regulation	245
14.6	A European Patent must have the same set of claims in all participating Member States to have unitary effect.	245
14.7	Filing a request for unitary effect.	246
14.7.1	Who can file a request for unitary effect?	246
14.7.2	Where should a request for unitary effect be filed?	246
14.7.3	What is the deadline for filing a request for unitary effect?.	246
14.7.4	What language should the request for unitary effect be filed in?	246
14.7.5	Content and form of the request for unitary effect	246
14.7.6	Chance to correct formal deficiencies where content of request is incomplete	247
14.7.7	Decision on a request for unitary effect	247
14.7.8	Date the decision takes effect	247
14.7.9	Withdrawal of a request for unitary effect	247
14.7.10	Provision of a certificate for unitary effect	247
14.8	Provision of a translation when requesting unitary effect will only be required for a limited period.	248
14.9	Publication of the translation provided when requesting unitary effect	248
14.10	Requirement to provide a translation of a unitary patent for enforcement	248
14.11	Protection conferred by a unitary patent – no double protection	249
14.12	Unitary patent as property – transfer and license.	249
14.13	Licenses of right may be offered for a unitary patent – reduced renewal fees.	250
14.14	Register for unitary patent protection and file inspection.	250
14.15	Compensation scheme for certain unitary patent proprietors if the patent was filed in an EU language other than English, French or German.	252
14.16	Renewal fees for a unitary patent.	253
