

- 1___ All Hallows by the Tower
Samuel Pepys records the Great Fire of London | 10
- 2___ Arnold Bennett's Steps
A novelist's ascent to fame | 12
- 3___ Athenaeum Club
Where two great writers reconciled | 14
- 4___ Bank of England
Where The Wind in the Willows first stirred | 16
- 5___ Bedford Park
G. K. Chesterton's anarchists in arcadia | 18
- 6___ Bertrand Russell's Home
Nobel Prize winner's childhood at Pembroke Lodge | 20
- 7___ The British Library
George the III's Library fit for a king | 22
- 8___ Brompton Cemetery
Where Beatrix Potter met Peter Rabbit | 24
- 9___ Browning Room
The Secret Wedding of Barrett and Browning | 26
- 10___ Brown's Hotel
Kipling's Home from Home | 28
- 11___ Buck's Club
Inspiration for P. G. Wodehouse | 30
- 12___ Cadogan Hotel
The humiliation of being Oscar | 32
- 13___ Cambridge Circus
Where spies came out from the cold | 34
- 14___ Campden Grove
James Joyce ties the knot | 36
- 15___ Canonbury Tower
Oliver Goldsmith flees debtors | 38
- 16___ Carlyle's House
The French Revolution written here | 40
- 17___ Cecil Court
Arthur Ransome's early workplace | 42
- 18___ The Charing Cross Hotel
Edith Wharton's passion changes her life | 44

- 19___ Charles Dickens Museum
Portrait of the writer as a young man | 46
- 20___ Christ Church
Jack London in the Abyss | 48
- 21___ Clapham Common
Graham Greene's art imitated his life | 50
- 22___ Cloth Fair
John Betjeman's love nest | 52
- 23___ C. L. R. James' Last Home
The cricketing radical | 54
- 24___ Cornhill
A door in the Square Mile tells a Brontë story | 56
- 25___ Covent Garden
Johnson meets Boswell, and a great book is born | 58
- 26___ Daniel Defoe's Tombstone
A long journey to its present home | 60
- 27___ Dean Street
Marx's love life above a London restaurant | 62
- 28___ Down House
Where Darwin explained our origins | 64
- 29___ Dr Dee's Library
The 'lost' library in an unusual place | 66
- 30___ Farm Street Church
Brideshead had its origins here | 68
- 31___ Flemings Hotel
Miss Marple's London holiday | 70
- 32___ Freud Meets Dalí
Meeting of an unlikely couple | 72
- 33___ Gower Street
Ottoline Morrell entertains the literati | 74
- 34___ Great Russell Street
A place of contrasting styles and stylists | 76
- 35___ Grey Court
Cardinal Newman's happy childhood | 78
- 36___ Guildhall
Home of the Booker prize | 80
- 37___ Hazlitt's
Where William's 'happy' life came to an end | 82
- 38___ Henrietta Street
Rallying cry for the Left | 84

- 39___ Heywood Hill Bookshop
A novelist who sold other people's books | 86
- 40___ Highgate Cemetery
Muse exhumed for poems from the grave | 88
- 41___ Holland House
A place for literature, politics and good talk | 90
- 42___ Imperial War Museum
Antonia White sees through glass | 92
- 43___ Islington History Centre
The playwright who defaced books | 94
- 44___ The Isokon Building
Hampstead's modernist building | 96
- 45___ Keats House
A poet's medical notes | 98
- 46___ Kensington Gardens
Inspiration for Peter Pan | 100
- 47___ Keynes Library
Where the West was won – by books | 102
- 48___ Lambeth Palace Library
The first printed book in Britain | 104
- 49___ Lancaster Gate
Muriel Spark's girls of 'slender means' | 106
- 50___ The London Library
Tiny books in a very large collection | 108
- 51___ London Zoo
Lear, no-nonsense illustrator | 110
- 52___ Marble Hill House
Pope as Grand Gardener at Thameside mansion | 112
- 53___ Marx Memorial Library
More than a memorial to Marx | 114
- 54___ Middle Temple
Where law meets literature | 116
- 55___ Montpelier Square
Arthur Koestler's end | 118
- 56___ National Poetry Library
Little-known literary treasury | 120
- 57___ National Portrait Gallery
Jane Austen's only true likeness | 122
- 58___ Newington Green
'The birthplace of feminism' | 124

- 59___ New Inn Broadway
London's first theatre | 126
- 60___ Notre Dame de France
A poet paints the walls | 128
- 61___ Old Bailey
Literature in the dock | 130
- 62___ Paddington Station
Michael Bond's Peruvian bear found by the Browns | 132
- 63___ Palmers Green
Poetry from suburbia | 134
- 64___ Parkway
A tale of two Bennetts | 136
- 65___ Peckham Rye
Where William Blake saw angels | 138
- 66___ Pemberton Gardens
Home of a nobody for the Pooters | 140
- 67___ The Pembroke
Armistead Maupin's leather bar local | 142
- 68___ Poets' Corner
Trollope's warden contemplates quandary | 144
- 69___ Pole Hill
Lawrence of Chingford | 146
- 70___ The Queen's Hotel
Emile Zola in exile in south London | 148
- 71___ The Reform Club
Around the world in how long? | 150
- 72___ Robert Fitzroy Academy
D. H. Lawrence, the novel teacher | 152
- 73___ Rose Street
Rebellious writer attacked | 154
- 74___ Royal Horseguards Hotel
The library without books | 156
- 75___ Royal Observatory
A terrorist plot in Greenwich | 158
- 76___ Russell Square
Where T. S. Eliot, the poet, discovered poets | 160
- 77___ Sambourne House
Here humour and aesthetics combine | 162
- 78___ The Senate House
Where 'ignorance is strength' in Newspeak | 164

- 79___ The Sherlock Holmes
Have a pint with the Great Detective | 166
- 80___ Sir John Soane's Museum
Henry James visits inspirational antiquities | 168
- 81___ St Andrew Undershaft
London commemorates a Londoner | 170
- 82___ St Andrew's Church
Novelist Jew becomes Christian prime minister | 172
- 83___ Stationers' Hall
Literature gains its official stamp | 174
- 84___ St Frideswide's Mission
Calling the midwives | 176
- 85___ St George the Martyr
The short, unhappy marriage of two major poets | 178
- 86___ St Leonard's Terrace
Where Dracula was conceived | 180
- 87___ St Michael's Church
Coleridge's remains found in wine cellar | 182
- 88___ Stoke Newington Church Street
Where Edgar Allan Poe was educated | 184
- 89___ St Pancras Old Church
Unusual place for a literary courtship | 186
- 90___ St Paul's Cathedral
John Donne designs his own memorial | 188
- 91___ Strawberry Hill House
Gothic residence for gothic writer Horace Walpole | 190
- 92___ St Thomas' Hospital
Somerset Maugham, from doctor to novelist | 192
- 93___ Tavistock Street
Where De Quincey got high | 194
- 94___ The Temple Church
Dark deeds, eccentric theology and medieval myth | 196
- 95___ Temple Tube Station
Where the author sought him and found him | 198
- 96___ Thackeray's House
Where Vanity Fair was penned | 200
- 97___ Thomas Cromwell's Palace
One of London's largest private residences | 202
- 98___ Tower Hamlets Town Hall
Mark Twain entertains patients | 204

- 99___ Tower Hill
Where the author of Utopia met his death | 206
- 100___ The Trafalgar Tavern
George Eliot celebrates | 208
- 101___ University College
Jeremy Bentham in his own image | 210
- 102___ Victoria & Albert Museum
H. G. Wells finds his way | 212
- 103___ Victoria Park Square
Deedes of war | 214
- 104___ Vigo Street
Literary building where a Penguin flew in | 216
- 105___ Wardour Street
Where feminist publishing began | 218
- 106___ W. B. Yeats Sculpture
Nobel Prize winner's early years in London | 220
- 107___ Westminster Bridge
From here, Wordsworth's 'sight so touching' | 222
- 108___ The Wheatsheaf
The artist, his model and the poet | 224
- 109___ Wiener Holocaust Library
Mystery about the world's most infamous book | 226
- 110___ William Morris Gallery
Bringing beauty back to printing | 228
- 111___ Winston Churchill's Home
Statesman's years at Hyde Park Gate | 230