

Foreword	Anna Schmid	6
Breaking the spell	Mario Blaser	9
Alive – more than human worlds	Ursula Regehr & Rosine Vuille	14
Key concepts	Ursula Regehr & Rosine Vuille	26
Relational stories
Questioning the nature/culture divide	Tabea Buri	32
Things as migrants	Alice Hertzog	35
More than a thulu (tree)	Brian Martin, Bradley Webb & Alfred Priestley	38
Webs of life
Dialogical encounters	Ursula Regehr	50
Embodied vital force	Alexander Brust	58
Living forest	Lukas Straumann	64
Of the unity of all beings	Kaspar Müller	69
Living beings in Jain philosophy	Rosine Vuille	74
Mountains: manifestations of the divine	Stephanie Lovász	78
A temple between volcano and sea	Rebekka Sutter	82
Personified Mother Earth	Alexander Brust	86
Powerful Mother Water	Ursula Regehr	90
Inhabited soul jugs	Tevodai Mambai	95
Spirited drums	Zainabu Yallo	99
Art as medium	Zainabu Yallo	102
Neither human nor animal	Beatrice Voirol	109
Conveying knowledge – John Mawurndjul	Christian Kaufmann	114
Nymasyon's swamp	Till Förster	120
Protective snakes	Stephanie Lovász	123
Contested land	Beatrice Voirol	127
Meeting the patriarchy: extractivism exposed	Taloi Havini	131

Ways of being together
A river in the family	Réka Mascher-Frigyesi	142
Commons: shared responsibility for water	Tabea Buri	146
'Good living' an alternative?	Alexander Brust	150
ubuntu : an ethics of interconnectedness	Ursula Regehr	154
An ecological ethics in Buddhism?	Stephanie Lovász	158
On probation on earth	Zep	161
Afronauts: visions of extra-terrestrial colonization	Michaela Schäuble	165
Listening to trees	Misa Sugahara	169
The future is fungi!	Marion Neumann	174
 References		 186
Authors		192