

Contents

1	Beyond Simple Explanations: An Introduction to Euthanasia	1
1.1	The Organizational Involvement of the Perpetrators and Acts: A Puzzle in Need of Explanation.	3
1.2	Methods, Sources and Obstacles of (Organizational) Sociological Euthanasia Research	7
1.3	Aktion T4: An Empirical Case Sketch of the Gas Murder Phase	15
2	Research Agenda: On Organized Brutalities	23
2.1	Memberships and Formal Expectations: Conformity and Obedience.	25
2.2	On the Concept of the Zone of Indifference	29
3	On the Normalization of Illegal Practices	33
3.1	The Institutionalization of the Killings	35
3.2	The Rationalization of the Killings	47
3.2.1	On the (Alleged) Legality of the Eugenic Action.	49
3.2.2	Recalibration	51
3.2.3	Denial of Responsibility	52
3.2.4	Victim Denial	54
3.2.5	Denial of Harm	57
3.2.6	For the Benefit of the Higher Purpose	60
3.2.7	Euphemistic Vocabulary	62
3.3	The Socialization of the Killings	63
3.4	Critical Reflection: Interdependencies and Empirically Based Queries	67

4	The (Temporary) Stop of Aktion T4	71
4.1	After the Stop: Alternative Activities of the Personnel	73
4.2	Characteristics of the Second Murder Phase	75
5	Air War, Disaster Medical Response and the Hadamar Asylum	79
6	The Second Murder Phase in Hadamar	87
6.1	The Medication Murders in Hadamar: The Basic Sequence of Events	88
6.1.1	Medical Primacy	92
6.1.2	The Hierarchization of Patients	94
6.1.3	Personnel Continuities	97
6.1.4	Responsibility Diffusion	98
6.1.5	The Cycle of Killings	101
6.1.6	Lack of Exit Options	103
6.2	Maintained Knowledge Structures and Continued (Interactional) Experiences	107
7	Conclusion: The Normalization of Organized Brutalities	113
7.1	Research Perspective(S): The Analytical Generality of the Elaborated Theses	115
7.2	Conclusion: Condemnations and Consciousness of Guilt	120
	Source List	123