

Table of Contents

---

Preface	vii
Chapter One: "Let the Word Go Forth": John F. Kennedy's Concern about Language and Style	1
Chapter Two: "Ask Not What Your Country Can Do for You": The Visionary and Formulaic Language of the Inaugural Address	9
Chapter Three: From "civis Romanus sum" to "Ich bin ein Berliner": Kennedy's Sententious Remarks as the Gospel of Freedom	17
Chapter Four: "The Cause of America is the Cause of All Mankind": Kennedy's Propensity for Familiar Quotations	25
Chapter Five: "The Truth Shall Make You Free": Kennedy's Reliance on Proverbial Wisdom from the Bible	41
Chapter Six: "This is a Free Country": Proverbs in the Service of Justice, Freedom, and Peace	53
Chapter Seven: "We Must Set Our House in Order": Proverbial Expressions as Evocative Political Discourse	75
Chapter Eight: "We are Willing to Look Life in the Eye": Somatic Phrases as Signs of Emotive Commitment	95

Chapter Nine: “Riding the Back of the Tiger”: Animal Metaphors as Reflections of Human Behavior 105

Chapter Ten: “A Rising Tide Lifts All the Boats”: Maritime Expressions as Symbols of Life’s Vicissitudes 115

Bibliography 127

Index of Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 135