

Table of Contents

Series Acknowledgement	IX
Instead of an Introduction: Who Came Out of the Armoured Closet?	XI
1. Peaceful People are Dying; Or Troubled Times	1
2. An Open Secret; Or Let's Stop Being Embarrassed and Take (Sensible) Action	13
3. 'Easier to Unleash than to Rein in Later'; Or Women's Glamour, Women's Hell	29
October and Brigitte Bardot; Or Women Show their Faces – and More!	30
To Get Pregnant or Not to Get Pregnant?; Or Conscious Motherhood	42
4. Factory Revolutions 1956–1957	55
'Social Demand for Wheelbarrows'; Or Settling Matters in the Factory	57
'Live and Let Live'; Or a Rotten Compromise	62
'We Now Have a Workers' Council'; Or Factory Hopes and Disappointments	65
5. 'Those Surplus to Requirements Must Leave'; Or the Spectre of Unemployment 1956–1957	75
'It's a Special Kind of Unemployment'	75
'For Them, it's Just Like Paradise'	84
'Small Towns are Dying ...'; Or How the Centre Wanted to Save the Periphery	89
'They Can Hardly Go Back to the Shovel'; Or the Special-Case Unemployed	100
'Give Me a Chance to Go Abroad'; Or a (Temporary) Return of Hope for Economic Emigration	108

6.	'We, the Youth of the Atomic Age'; Or the Young Generation between Marx and Einstein	113
	'There is a Demand for Peace and Quiet'; Or Revolutionaries are Tired	115
	'All They Want is a Better Standard of Living ...'; Or the Findings of a Certain Questionnaire	129
7.	'The Offensive of the Clergy Continues'; Or a (Temporary) Role Reversal	151
	'The Introduction of Religion Followed a Peaceful Course, on the Whole ...'	151
	'A Wave of Clericalism is Spreading ...'	158
	'We Have so Many Staunch Clericals in our Party ...'	163
8.	I Will Go Abroad This Year, No Matter What!	169
9.	Culture? It is in the West!	187
10.	We Want to Be Modern!	207
	'The Great Transformation', Or Dreaming in Vain about a Car of One's Own	209
	'We're about to Step Over the Threshold'; Or The Wonderful Plastic World of the Future ...	226
11.	'We All Want a Decent Standard of Living'; Or Money, Poverty and Wealth in (post) October Poland	235
	Money Matters	235
	'We All Want a Decent Standard of Living'	238
	'A Case of Politics and Social Fairness'	247
	Only the Poor See Eye to Eye	249
	'Money Converts'; Or the Beginning of the (Semi-) Legal Relationship between the Zloty and the Dollar	252
12.	'The Horses Have Gone Wild'; Or How Long Does it Take to Privatise the State?	263
	'A State-cum-Private Enterprise Partnership'	267
	'Chain Trade'	272
	Side-lines	276

13. 'We're in Business'; Or the Hopes and Disappointments and Private Entrepreneurs ..... 283

    'An Act of Grace Dictated by Necessity' ..... 283

    'Workshop Repatriation', Or a Green Light to the Crafts ..... 286

    'We are the Ones in the Centre of the Action – You Stay Out in the Sticks' ..... 290

    'There is Simply Nothing to Work With', Or How to Manage
Despite Everything ..... 296

    'Blockages in Some Sections'; Or Light Flashing Amber ..... 302

Instead of an Ending: What's Left? ..... 309

List of Abbreviations ..... 315

Bibliography ..... 319

Index ..... 335