

Contents

Preface — VII

Chapter 1

Change, Failure, Success, and Foresight — 1

Introduction — 1

The Nature of Change — 2

Change, Silent Transformations, Limited Vision, and Unexpected Shocks — 6

Organisational/Business Failure — 9

Lessons for Managers in any Organisation — 13

Emergence — 14

From Meaningless to Meaningful — 15

Foresight — 17

Otherness — 20

Dialogue, Strategic Conversations, and Scenarios — 21

Building the Rationale for Scenarios as Strategic Conversations — 22

Short Case Study Consolidating Chapter Discussion — 24

Setting the Objectives of the Book — 27

References — 28

Chapter 2

Genealogy and Evolution of Scenario Planning — 32

Introduction — 32

Genealogy and Foundations of Scenario Planning — 34

Uncertainty in the Contextual Environment — 37

Evolution of Thinking About Scenario Planning — 40

Conclusion — 56

References — 56

Chapter 3

Business Idea and the Basis of Organising — 59

Introduction: Organisation or Organising — 59

Organising and the 'Business Idea' — 61

Business Idea Fundamentals — 62

Strategic Conversations and Flux and Flow — 66

SWOT Analysis as the Traditional Mode of Capturing Aspects of the Organisation and its Contextual Environment — 68

Implications for Organisational Success and Delivery of Public Goods — 69

References — 70

Chapter 4

Strategic conversations, scenario process, and reframing business idea — 72

Introduction — 72

Case study 1 – CBC Scotch: Whisky and Spirits Sector — 74

Research Approach and Data Collection and Analysis — 75

Workshop One – Interview Feedback, Agreement on the Scenario Agenda, and Development of the Business Idea — 76

Workshop Two – Scenario Building — 80

Workshop Three – Strategic Implications — 86

Case Study 2 – CLCS and the IT Consulting Industry — 90

Workshop One – Interview Feedback, Agreement on the Scenario Agenda, and Development of the Business Idea — 92

Workshop Two – Scenario Building — 95

Workshop Three – Strategic Implications — 103

Case Study 3 – CP and IPC Magazines: the Publishing Industry — 107

Workshop One – Interview Feedback, Agreement on the Scenario Agenda, and Development of the Business Idea — 108

Workshop Two – Scenario Building — 111

Case Study 4 – PRBV and the Role of Technology in Rail Transportation — 118

Workshop One – Interview Feedback, Agreement on the Scenario Agenda, and Development of the Business Idea — 120

Workshop Two – Scenario Building — 121

Conclusion: Case Study Insights, Time, Reframing, and Strategic Conversations with Scenarios — 126

References — 128

Chapter 5

Coping with Surprises and Potential Disruptions: Towards an Understanding of the Role of Negative Capability — 130

Introduction — 130

Coping with Insights and Revelations from the Scenario Process: The Role of ‘Negative Capability’ — 132

Negative Capability and the Role of the ‘Surprise-Free’ Scenario — 135

Scenarios, Negative Capability, and the Search for the Basis of Organising — 141

Negative Capability in Other Contexts — 143

Conclusion — 144

References — 145

Chapter 6

Reflections in the Twilight — 148

- Seeking Clarity on the Purpose of any Scenario Project — 148
- Expect the Answer? Can't See the Answer? Reject the Answer? — 150
- Bias, Knowledge Limitations, Simplistic Thinking, and Surprise — 151
- Do it, Move on, New Distractions Emerge, Yet the Digestion/Reflection Period Needed — 151
- Link to (Strategic or Policy) Action Unclear — 153
- Fragmentation and the Need to Develop Shared Language and Meaning — 154
- Differences of Opinions and Fragmentation on the Way Forward — 156
- Time Passes and People Forget Insights from the Scenario Process — 157
- Do it for the Client/do it with the Client/Let the Client do it Themselves - Scenario Process Ownership and Engagement — 158
- Design of the Scenario Process — 159
- Awareness of Challenges for Scenario Planning Projects — 162
- Group Composition and Culture of Openness/Questioning and the Management of the Strategic Conversation — 163
- The Skills Required to be Demonstrated and Employed by the Facilitator — 164
- References — 165

Chapter 7

Conclusion – How to Employ the Scenario Process — 166

- Phase 1 – Management Team Initial Interviews — 167
- Phase 2 – Workshop 1 Including Feedback and Confirmation of Interview Themes, Agreeing on the Scenario Agenda, and Development of the Initial Business Idea — 169
- Phase 3 – RP Search and Background Research — 171
- Phase 4 – Workshop 2 Including Scenario Development and Initial Insights — 172
- Phase 5 – Incubation Period, Reflections, and Building Support — 178
- Phase 6 – Workshop 3 Including Exploring and Developing Scenario Insights, Mapping Strategic Implications, and Reframing the Business Idea — 179
- Phase 7 – Final Summary Presentation Including Future Actions and Change Implications — 181
- Phase 8 – Management Team Closing Interviews — 181
- References — 182

Index — 185