

Contents

Acknowledgements — VII

Prologue: The US Tax Havens — XV

Chapter 1

Where are the tax havens? — 1

Introduction — 1

Where are the tax havens? — 2

Onshore tax havens – The United States of America, The Netherlands and the City of London — 4

The United States of America — 4

The Netherlands — 7

The City of London — 10

An ultra-secret tax haven – Campione — 13

Ghost Havens – the freeports — 14

“Super tax havens” – cryptocurrency and the blockchain — 15

OECD’s Crypto-Asset Reporting Framework (CARF) and Amendments to the Common Reporting Standard — 19

European Union – Markets in Crypto-assets Regulation (MiCA) — 20

Blockchain Havens — 23

Gibraltar — 26

Malta — 26

Switzerland — 27

Wyoming — 27

Isle of Man — 28

Tax haven cryptocurrency and blockchain legislation — 29

Reflections — 37

Chapter 2

What is a “tax haven”? — 46

Introduction — 46

What is a “tax haven”? — 46

Historical perspective — 48

Basic characteristics — 49

Immunities — 50

Classification: Evolution and fragmentation — 51

Reflections — 55

Appendix Classification of tax havens — 56

Chapter 3

Becoming a tax haven — 79

Introduction — 79

Failing marginal or subsistence economies — 81

Isle of Man — 82

South Dakota — 83

Principality of Liechtenstein — 84

Former colonies re-colonised — 85

The Bahamas, the Bay Street Boys and the American Mafia — 89

The Cayman Islands – from wasteland to premier international finance centre — 92

The “Butlers” – tax haven enablers — 96

Professional enablers and professional money launderers — 97

Wealth managers and corporate service providers — 99

Lawyers and consultants — 100

Complicit onshore governments — 101

Counter-initiatives — 103

United States of America: A stalled initiative? — 103

European Union: A first step — 107

Reflections — 108

Chapter 4

Smoke and mirrors – privacy versus secrecy — 113

Introduction — 113

Privacy versus secrecy — 115

The meaning of “privacy” — 115

Secrecy jurisdictions — 115

Press intrusion – investigative journalism — 117

State intrusion – surveillance — 118

An American perspective — 119

Leaving the back door unlocked — 120

Whistle-blowers, investigative journalists and spies — 121

Confidential relationships – the Cayman Islands — 123

Liechtenstein, Germany and the United States: LGT Group 2008 — 124

Switzerland and the USA: UBS 2009 — 128

Switzerland: Credit Suisse and the Suisse Secrets Investigation 2022 — 130

International Consortium of Investigative Journalists: Panama, Paradise and Pandora Papers — 132

Spies — 133

2023: Rehabilitation of whistle-blowers —	134
“LuxLeaks” 2014 – decision of the European Court of Human Rights in Halet v Luxembourg 2023 —	135
Reflections —	138

Chapter 5

Beneficial ownership – transparency and concealment — 143

Introduction —	143
Beneficial ownership —	144
Anonymous real estate in the United Kingdom and the United States of America —	145
United Kingdom —	145
United States of America —	146
Orthodox strategy: Registration —	147
Transparency initiatives: The United Kingdom, the United States of America, the European Union —	148
United Kingdom —	150
Registration shortcomings at the UK’s Companies House —	150
Unexplained Wealth Orders —	153
Economic Crime (Transparency and Enforcement) Act 2022 —	154
United States of America —	155
Geographic Targeting Orders (GTOs) —	155
Corporate Transparency Act —	156
The European Union —	160
Fifth Anti-Money Laundering Directive (5AMLD) —	160
Impact of 5AMLD on the Crown Dependencies and the British Overseas Territories —	162
November 2022 – an unexpected and seismic shift away from disclosure —	166
Reaction of the United Kingdom —	169
Off the leash? Consequences for the United Kingdom’s Crown Dependencies and British Overseas Territories —	170
“Unshell” – rules to prevent the misuse of shell companies for tax purposes: ATAD 3 —	171
Reflections —	173
Appendix A: The concept of “ownership” in world legal systems —	174
Appendix B: Beneficial Ownership Transparency —	179

Chapter 6

Chimeric solutions and where to find them — 200

Introduction — 200

Companies, trusts and foundations explained — 202

Companies — 202

Shell companies — 203

Trusts — 204

Some fundamental aspects of trusts — 205

Foundations — 206

Chimeric solutions — 207

Trusts — 207

United States dynastic trusts — 207

BVI VISTA Trust — 211

Cayman STAR trust — 214

Cook Islands international relationship property trust — 215

Isle of Man trusts — 222

Non-charitable purpose trusts — 225

How classic trusts and non-charitable purpose trusts compare — 226

The practical effect of holding assets in a non-charitable purpose trust — 227

Are they truly trusts? Uncertainty and the Hague Convention — 229

Transparency concerns – No-man’s land? — 230

Technical analysis of the Isle of Man Purpose Trusts Act 1996 — 231

Foundations — 233

Cayman Islands foundation companies — 233

Liechtenstein private-benefit foundation — 237

Nevis multiform foundation — 238

New Hampshire Foundation — 242

Panama Private Foundation — 245

BVI Business Companies — 247

United States of America: Delaware – blockchain maintenance of corporate records — 251

United States of America: Wyoming – Decentralized Autonomous Organizations (DAOs) — 254

Bahamas Executive Entities — 260

Liechtenstein Anstalt — 263

Isle of Man Life Assurance Policies — 265

Reflections — 272

Chapter 7Global impact — 279

Introduction — 279

Perceived global impact of tax havens — 280

Tax avoidance versus tax evasion — 284

Money laundering and the “super tax havens” — 287

Illicit funds flow, kleptocracy, corruption and financial crime — 295

Luxembourg — 300

The Russian Federation — 302

The People’s Republic of China — 307

International human rights abuse — 309

Limitations of “Soft Law” — 311

Focus on human rights and taxation, rather than on tax havens — 311

Environmental degradation — 315

Reflections — 316

Appendix — 317

Chapter 8Domestic impact — 330

Introduction — 330

Reputations lost and won — 331

The bitter bit – “finance sector capture”, inequality and the Dual State — 336

Finance sector capture — 336

The Sovereignty Ploy — 341

“Intervention is too hard a sell”? — 343

Laws on demand – domestic pressure — 347

Laws on demand – international ultimatum – EU Economic Substance — 353

The Dual State, inequality and discrimination — 357

New modern feudalism — 363

Domestic human rights abuse — 367

Abandoned: The curious case of Curaçao — 370

Constitutional status — 370

Tax haven and the “Dutch Sandwich” — 371

Decline and fall — 372

Domestic impact – a failed state — 373

Reflections — 376

Chapter 9

Afterword — 384

Good or bad? The moral maze — 384

Tax havens on trial — 385

The case for the prosecution — 385

The case for the defence — 387

The decision of the jury? — 389

Binary solutions are ineffective — 389

Concluding reflection — 390

Index — 393