

Contents

Abstract 9

Preface
by Prof. Dr. phil. habil. Sabine Knierbein 11

1 Introduction 17

1.1 Why (Utopianism of) Care? 18

1.2 Methodology and Book Structure 20

1.3 Research Questions 23

2 Imagined Worlds 25

2.1 Transformative Utopianisms: Utopia as Method 26

2.2 Social Imaginaries 37

2.3 Spatial Imaginaries 43

3 Constructed Narratives 49

3.1 Unfulfilled Promises of Modernity 50

3.2 The Crisis Narrative 54

3.3 Transformation, Multiple Crises, and Truth Regimes 58

4 Linking Utopianism, Crisis, and Architecture 65

4.1 Crisis and Architecture: The Meaning of Architecture in Crisis Society.... 66

4.2 Architecture and Utopianism: Space and Projectivity75

4.3 Utopianism and Crisis: Time and Emancipation 84

5 Space-Times of Control: Problem-Solving Utopianisms 99

5.1 Degenerate Utopias: Utopianism and the Disavowal of Crisis100

5.2 Junkspace: Anti-Utopianism and Omni-Crisis108

5.3 Techno-Utopias: Utopianism ‘Solving’ Crisis..... 114

6 Space-Times of Care: Question-Raising Utopianisms 121

6.1 Agency: Architecture’s Political Dimension..... 122

6.2 Rethinking Architectural Education.....128

6.3 Embodied Utopianisms of Care.....138

7 Interpretation 147

7.1 Summary and Analysis.....148

7.2 Conclusion 165

7.3 Revisited: Why Utopianism (of Care)?..... 166

Glossary..... 169

Acknowledgements 175

Bibliography 177