

Contents

	Page		Page
From the authors	3	Critically reviewing materials	25
Contents	4	Syllabus, materials and assessment for CLP	26
Part A	7	The organisation of a syllabus	26
Critical Language Pedagogy	9	The syllabus in Critical Language Pedagogy	27
What is Critical Pedagogy?	9	A thematic syllabus	27
Origins of Critical Pedagogy	10	Organising the syllabus	28
Key concepts of Critical Pedagogy	10	The materials in Critical Language Pedagogy	28
What is Critical Language Pedagogy?	11	The form of published materials	29
Why Critical Language Pedagogy?	12	The role of teacher input	29
Key values of Critical Language Pedagogy	12	The role of student input	30
Key features of classroom practices	13	A realistic perspective	30
Critical understandings of language and English	15	Assessment in Critical Language Pedagogy	31
What is language?	15	Participation – the overarching idea	31
A critical understanding of language	16	Collaboration – teacher and students	31
Standard languages as constructs of power	16	Assessment – more than just language	32
Additional language learning	17	Setting up activities for CLP	33
Language learners and the classroom	18	Managing student expectations	33
Critical learning, critical literacy and English	18	Negotiating the syllabus	36
The dominance of English	19	Engaging in critical needs analysis	38
The spread of English and ELT	19	Providing attitudes and techniques for critical dialogue	39
The phenomenon of English	20	Language tools for critical dialogue	40
Language and English as a Lingua Franca	21	Clarifying rules for classroom participation	43
What is English as a Lingua Franca?	21	Options for equality in participation	44
What can teachers do with ELF?	22	Integrating CLP and ELF	47
Moving away from native-speaker normativity and an English-only approach	23	Focusing on Critical Language Pedagogy	48
Raising awareness of diversity (linguistic and cultural)	24	Focus on codes	48
Focusing on successful, rather than correct, communication	24	Focusing on English as a Lingua Franca	51
Prioritising pragmatics and accommodation over grammar rules	24	Focus on learners' repertoires	51
		Focus on multilingualism in daily life	52
		Focus on discussions of diversity	53
		Focus on linguistic landscapes	53

	Page		Page
Focus on pragmatics	54	7 Linguistic prejudice	122
Focus on the analysis of English as a Lingua Franca	54	8 Brandalism	127
Focus on English and the linguacultural phenomena it generates	55	9 Family and society	132
Focus on English and translingual practices	56	10 Just one for the road	137
Focus on critical vocabulary	57
References	59	Part C	143
Part B	63	Teacher reflection	145
Handouts	64	A structure for reflection	145
1 Reasons	65	Recording for reflection	147
2 Beliefs	67	Reflection for professional development	148
3 Emotional experiences	68	The diversity of English	148
4 Expectations	69	Language ideologies	149
5 Negotiating the syllabus	71	Multilingualism	150
6 Critical needs analysis I	73	ELF and treatment of errors	151
7 Critical needs analysis II	75	The challenge of action	153
8 Attitudes and styles	78	Agency	153
9 Learning tools for critical dialogue I	80	Meaning	154
10 Learning tools for critical dialogue II	83	Language	155
11 Learning tools for critical dialogue III	86	Digitalisation	156
12 Classroom participation	88	Investigation	157
13 ELF and communication strategies	91	Building a teacher network	159
14 ELF and CLP	93	Challenges and concerns	160
Sample units	95	Reflection and reality	161
1 Let's talk about it	97	Examples and experiences	162
2 Why study anything?	101	Interest and initiatives	164
3 Why study English?	105	Organisations and opportunities	165
4 How to study English	109	References	167
5 Who am I these days?	113	Authors' note	168
6 Lack of housing and shelter	117	Editor's note	168