

Acknowledgements	7
Note to the Reader	9
Introduction	10
The Construction of Rinpa	10
Ikeda Koson in Art History	12
Koson, Rinpa, and the Nation	13
An ANT Approach to Images	13
About this Book	15
1 Ikeda Koson in the Mirror of Sources	17
Tracing the Human Actor	17
Names and Name Troubles	17
Biographical Facts and Cultural Acts	20
Provenance and Perception of Koson's Artworks	25
Artworks as Actor-Networks	30
2 Edo Rinpa Pictoriality in Koson's Screens	33
Interpictoriality in Rinpa Pictoriality	33
The Correlation of Medium and Materiality	37
Big Frame—Big Name? Maple Leaves on a Stream and Mountain Views	52
The Thirty-Six Immortal Poets as Heirloom Painting of the Ogata Lineage	66
3 Koson's Painting Production in Modes	74
A Flower is a Flower is a Flower: Koson's kachōga	74
Famous Places in and around Edo: Koson's meisho-e	92
Staying Faithful to Antique Models: Religious Paintings	100
Koson's Beauties: Re-Visions of Matabei in Nineteenth-Century Japan	106
Appropriating Yamato-e	113
Koson's Painting Production: Practices, Materiality, and Chronology	122

4 Beyond Painting: Koson's Prints, Sketches, and Copybooks	127
Koson's surimono	127
Koson's Collection of Model Sketches	130
Koson's Copybooks: Making Art History in Nineteenth-Century Japan	138
Hōitsu's Construction of the Ogata Lineage	138
Koson's Copybook Projects	141
Miniature Reproductions (shukuzu) as Mediators	143
Copybooks as Orders of Images: Showing and Telling Art History	146
5 From the Ogata Lineage to the Kōrin School	154
Praising Kōrin in Europe	154
Constructing the Kōrin School in Japan	158
Alternative Ways of Transition: Nozawa Teiu	163
Artistic Reflections of Rinpa in Early Twentieth-Century Japan	167
The Immutable Mobiles of Rinpa	169
Appendices	172
A Ikeda Koson in Directories and Price Lists	172
B Survey of Paintings and Prints	177
C Signatures and Seals on Dated Works	240
Endnotes	244
References	268
Index and List of Characters	278
Photo Credits	288