

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations ix

Preface xiii

Introduction: Precarious Knowledge, Dangerous Transfers, and the Materiality of Knowing	1
PART I. TACTICS OF THE INTELLECTUAL PRECARIAT	25
SECTION I. THE RADICAL PERSONA	27
1 The Clandestine Precariat	31
2 The Libertine's Two Bodies	46
3 Portrait of the Freethinker as a Young Man	69
4 The Art of Deflation, or: How to Save an Atheist	101
5 A Library of Burned Books	139
SECTION II. TRUST, MISTRUST, COURAGE: EPISTEMIC     PERCEPTIONS, VIRTUES, AND GESTURES	167
6 Threatened Knowledge: Prolegomena to a Cultural History of Truth	171
7 Harpocratism: Gestures of Retreat	200
8 Dare to Know: Epistemic Virtue in Historical Perspective	224

PART II. FRAGILITY AND ENGAGEMENT IN THE KNOWLEDGE BOURGEOISIE	237
SECTION III. PROBLEMATIC TRANSFERS	239
9 A Table in One's Hand: Historical Iconography	243
10 Family Secrets: Precarious Transfers within Intimate Circles	281
11 The Lost Package: The Role of Communications in the History of Philosophy in Germany	295
SECTION IV. COMMUNITIES OF FASCINATION AND THE INFORMATION HISTORY OF SCHOLARLY KNOWLEDGE	325
12 Protection of Knowledge and Knowledge of Protection: Defensive Magic, Antiquarianism, and Magical Objects	331
13 Mobility and Surveillance: The Information History of Numismatics and Journeys to the East under Louis XIV	355
14 Microscripts of the Orient: Navigating Scholarly Knowledge from Notebooks to Books	381
Concluding Word	417