

Table of Contents

9 Preface

11 A Brief History of Interactive Architecture
Behnaz Farahi, Neil Leach

Part I: From Cybernetics to Interactive Design

27 The Architectural Relevance of Cybernetics
Gordon Pask

35 From Cybernetics to Interactive Design
Interview with John Frazer
by Neil Leach

42 Architecture, Interaction, Systems
Usman Haque

48 Adaption: Towards a Theory of Interactivity
Neil Leach

Projects

58 A teamLabPlanetsTOKYO, teamLab

64 B Border Tuner, Lozano-Hemmer

68 C Epiphyte Chamber, Beesley

72 D Cerebral Hut, Özel

Part II: New Kinds of Interaction

- 77      Fragile Architecture: Notes for a New Model of Interaction
         Philip Beesley
- 84      From Cybernetics to Affective
         Computing in Design
         Behnaz Farahi
- 95      Neurospace
         Mona Ghandi
- 106     Balance, Body Awareness, and Movement in Interactive Experiences
         Elyne Legarnisson
- Projects
- 114     A    Ada, Sabin
- 116     B    Mirror Mirror, SOFTlab
- 118     C    Touch, LAb[au]
- 120     D    Eunoia, Park

Part III:
Material Interactivities

- 125      Active Matter
         Interview with Skylar Tibbits
         by Behnaz Farahi
- 137      Activating the Physical Toward Material Experience Design
         Yasuaki Kakehi
- 151      Architected Morphing Matter:
         The Confluence of Geometry and Hidden Forces
         Lining Yao, Harshika Jain
- 158      Tomorrowland
         Manuel Kretzer
- Projects
- 168      A    Glowing Nature, Roosegaarde
172      B    bioLogic, Tangible Media Group,
         MIT Media Lab
- 174      C    Halo, Kimchi and Chips
176      D    Caress of the Gaze, Farahi

Part IV: Transdisciplinary Approaches

- 181      Cyberphysical Architecture in the Era of Digital Eclecticism: Transdisciplinarity and Conflation of Technological Milieus
Güvenç Özel
- 193      A New Assemblage: Interactive
Art Experiences of a Human-Machine
Reality
Weidi Zhang
- 203      Trans-Disciplinary Interactions
Ruairi Glynn
- 213      Demystification: The Evolving Design
Process of Interactive Architecture
Michael Fox
- Projects
- 222      A    MegaFaces, Khan
- 224      B    Neuro-Architectures, Sciotto
- 228      C    Remnant, DigitalIO
- 230      D    Petting Zoo, Minimaforms

Conclusion

- 235      By Way of Conclusion, we Have a Panel Discussion Between Philip Beesley, Guvenc Ozel, and Ruairi Glynn
Led by Behnaz Farahi
