

1	What Is Social Media?	1
1.1	The Seven Most Important Social Media Mechanisms	3
1.2	Who Uses Social Media?	3
1.3	The Speed of Social Media	4
1.4	Overview of the Most Important Channels	6
2	The Ten Most Common Social Media Mistakes in Companies	11
3	Social Media Organization	15
3.1	The Organisation of the Social Media Department	17
3.2	Social Media Integration and Governance Model	19
3.2.1	Decentralised Integration of Social Media	20
3.2.2	Central Integration of Social Media	21
3.2.3	Staff Unit with Coordination Function	22
3.2.4	Staff Position with Team and Coordination Function with Further Subdivisions	23
3.2.5	Holistic Social Media Organisation	24
3.3	Reconciliation and Approval Processes	25
3.4	Building and Updating Social Media Expertise in the Company	26
4	Social Media Strategy	29
5	Social Media Guidelines	35
5.1	General Social Media Requirements	36
5.2	Company Social Media Guidelines	38
5.3	Specific Social Media Requirements	40
6	Social Media in Public Relations	43
6.1	How Has Social Media Changed Corporate Communication?	44
6.2	Giving Up Control, Keeping the Lead	44
6.3	Get Ready for Social Media in Six Steps	49

6.4	How Individual Communication Disciplines Use Social Media	51
6.4.1	Social Media in Product and Corporate PR	52
6.4.2	Social Media in Internal Communication	55
7	Social Media and Investor Relations	61
8	Social Media and Corporate Affairs	65
9	Social Media in the Marketing Department	71
9.1	The Social Media Model	74
9.2	Measuring Success in Social Media	77
9.3	Get Ready for Social Media in Seven Steps	80
10	Social Media and Customers	85
10.1	Social Media and Service	86
10.1.1	Focus on the Customer: Customer Experience Management in the Automotive Industry	86
10.1.2	“The world’s Largest Focus Group”: Social Customer Engagement in the Consumer Goods Industry	87
10.2	B2B in the “Age of the Customer”	87
10.2.1	Six Recommendations for Action to Make Your Service Area Social Media Ready	89
10.3	Social Media and Customer Data	92
11	Social Media in IT	99
12	Social Media in Human Resources	105
12.1	Social Media and Labour Law	106
12.2	Social Media in Personnel Recruitment (Recruiting)	108
12.3	Social Media and the Employer Brand (Employer Branding)	110
12.4	Social Media Professionals	112
12.4.1	The Social Media Manager	112
12.4.2	Other Social Media Tasks	112
12.5	Social Media in Personnel Development	114
12.6	Social Media in Personnel Service	116
13	Social Media in Works Councils and Trade Unions	117
14	Social Media in Purchasing	121
15	Social Media in the Legal Department	127
15.1	National and International Laws	128
15.2	Judgments and Case Law	128
15.3	Internal Specifications	129
15.4	Terms of Use of External Platforms	129
15.5	The Fast-Moving Nature of Social Media Law	129

15.6	Recommendations for Action	131
15.7	Keep the Overview	131
15.8	Create Overarching Regulations	131
15.9	Possible KPIs	133
16	The Influence of Social Media on Sales	135
16.1	Social Selling – New Opportunities and Challenges for the Sales Department	135
16.2	Social Media as a Magic Bullet for the Sales Organization	140
16.3	Social Media for Customer Acquisition	142
16.4	Customer Care Through Social Media	144
16.5	Social Commerce	145
16.6	Social Media Guidelines for the Sales Department	146
17	Social Media and Corporate Security	151
17.1	Emergency and Crisis Management	153
17.2	Object Security	155
17.3	Personal Security and Social Media	157
17.4	Information Security	159
17.5	Security of Events	165
18	Social Media in Research and Development	171
18.1	Social Media Monitoring and Research	171
18.2	Co-creation – Social Media and Innovation Projects	172
18.3	Social Media in Science	173
19	Social Media in Procurement, Production and Logistics	177
20	Being a Manager on Social Media – An Overview	181
20.1	Is It Useful to Have Your Own Social Media Profile?	182
20.2	Six Tips for Dealing with Social Media as a Manager	185
21	Practice: Virtual Management – Social Media as a Management Tool . . .	189
21.1	Social Media in the Team	193
21.2	Social Media and Leadership Styles	198
22	Practice: Becoming Active in Social Media in Six Steps	203
	Index	209