

Foreword Anne Pasternak	6
Acknowledgments	8
Copy Machine Manifestos: Artists Who Make Zines Branden W. Joseph and Drew Sawyer	10
Artists' Zines: The Fanzine as an Artistic Medium Gwen Allen	16
1. The Correspondence Scene, 1969–1980	24
Zines by Artists: Post-Pop Punk Art Branden W. Joseph	56–67
2. The Punk Explosion, 1975–1990	92
Social Media: Photography and Zines in the Age of Xerography Drew Sawyer	130–41
3. Queer and Feminist Undergrounds, 1987–2000	170
Cool Older Siblings: Queer Zines as Queer Theory Julia Bryan-Wilson	224–31
4. Subcultural Topologies, 1990–2010	268
Friendly Specters: Casper and Other Mexico City–based Artists' Zines and Projects Alexis Salas	292–97
5. Critical Promiscuity, 2000–2020	322
In Love and Rage: The Revolutionary Counter-Mood of Zine Culture Tavia Nyong'o	342–49
6. A Continuing Legacy, 2010–2023	368
The Eventfulness of Incomplete Presence, or No One Turned Away for Lack of Future Mimi Thi Nguyen	398–405
Selected Artists and Collectives Branden W. Joseph, Drew Sawyer, Imani Williford, and Marcelo Gabriel Yáñez	430
Picture Credits	444
Author Biographies	445
Brooklyn Museum Board of Trustees	447