

Contents

8 Introduction: Precarious Solidarities
Wing Chan, Charles Esche and David Morris

16 Precarious Solidarities: Artists for Democracy in Historical Perspective
David Morris

50 Art in a Solidarity Continuum: Winnowing Loose Transnational Threads
Eileen Legaspi-Ramirez

66 Before Art and Politics: Regarding the Precarious Documents of Artists for Democracy
Wing Chan

86 A Museum for the People: On the Museo de la Solidaridad Salvador Allende
María José Lemaitre Mujica and Caroll Yasky

98 Following Chile Vencerá
Hannah Healey

116 Everything is suspended in thin air
Cường Minh Bá Phạm and George Clark

130 'We are going to win': On Artists for Democracy and the 1970s Conjunction Vijay Prashad

137 Artists for Democracy 1974–77

163 Organized Dreaming
Cecilia Vicuña, 2013

185 Agriculture, Field, Decoration
Guy Brett, 1976

198 Commentary: You Hide Me
Nii Kwate Owoo, c.1970

213 Paul Burwell and David Toop at Artists' For Democracy
Annabel Nicolson, 1975

266 Performance art – it breathes and grows
Virgil Calaguan, 1977

278 Sacred Circles: 2,000 Years of North American Indian Art
Susan Hiller, 1977

292 David Medalla in Conversation with Brandon Taylor, 1977

303 Preliminary Notes for a Black Manifesto (extract)
Rasheed Araeen, 1975–76

321 Acknowledgements

322 Authors' Biographies

327 Image and Text Credits

330 Index