

Contents

Preface XI

Acronyms XV

Introduction XVII

1 How to Understand This Book XX

1.1 Problems the Book Addresses XXI

1.2 Key Vocabularies XXIV

1.3 Whom This Book is For XXV

1.4 Author Identity XXVI

1.5 Methodology XXVII

2 Plan of the Book XXVIII

PART I

1 The World of Laudato si' 3

1 Introduction 3

2 Laudato si' as a Catholic Document 5

2.1 Francis's Writings 7

2.2 Vatican II 8

2.3 Further Catholic Threads 9

3 Ethically Promising Terms and Themes 10

3.1 Empirical Engagement 11

3.2 Global Outreach 15

3.3 Intergenerational Timescale 15

3.4 Integral Ecology 16

3.5 Technocratic Paradigm 18

3.6 Ecological Conversion 19

4 Two Levels of Problems 19

5 A Third Level of Problems 25

6 Emphasizing Discontinuity 28

7 Conclusion 30

2 Integral Ecology, Integrated Ethics 31

1 Introduction 31

2 Integrating Ethical Discourses 33

3	Integration Through Distinction	37
3.1	Discourses and Anchoring	40
3.2	Integrating Distinctions	43
4	Anchoring Distinctions in Migration/Ecological Ethics	44
4.1	Stranger/Neighbor	45
4.2	Human/Nonhuman	46
4.3	How These Anchoring Distinctions Can Be Used	47
5	Resources for an Integrated Ethics	49
5.1	Pragmatism	49
5.2	Scriptural Reasoning	52
5.3	Three Logical Resources	54
6	Conclusion	57
3	Borders as Signs of the Times	59
1	Introduction	59
2	Borders as Signified	62
3	A Short History of Borders	64
4	A Taxonomy of Contemporary Borders	72
5	Borders' Ethical Relevance	76
6	Pope Francis and Borders	82
7	Conclusion	86

PART II

4	The Challenge/Opportunity of Borders	89
1	Introduction	89
2	Moral Challenge	91
3	Intellectual Challenge	94
4	Intellectual Opportunity	98
5	Moral Opportunity	102
6	Conclusion	109
5	Pope Francis and Liminality	111
1	Introduction	111
2	Francis and Borders Revisited	113
3	Evangelii Gaudium	117
4	Fratelli Tutti	124
5	Amoris Laetitia	131
6	Conclusion	136

CONTENTS	IX
6 Otherness and Identity	139
1 Introduction	139
2 Between Conflation and Incommensurability	141
2.1 Identity	141
2.2 Alterity	145
2.3 Overlapping Relations	146
3 The Center and Its Absence	151
4 Building an Ethics	158
5 Conclusion	162
7 Going Across and Letting In	163
1 Introduction	163
2 Step One: Identify a Problem or Set of Problems	166
3 Step Two: Identify a Normative Culture	168
4 Step Three: Hypothesize Within a Culture	172
5 Step Four: Reconsider Concepts	175
5.1 Dignity	176
5.2 Solidarity	179
6 Step Five: Reconsider Practices	183
7 Conclusion	191
Epilogue	193
Bibliography	195
List of terms	221