

Contents

Introduction	7
Mariusz Ciszak / Piotr Pranke Bolesław Chrobry, Empire and the Role of Memoria: The Political and Economical Understanding of Medieval Power Network	11
Przemysław Urbańczyk Bolesław Chrobry – the Commemorator	39
Marcin Lisiecki “Capital(s)” of the First Piast “State” in National Consciousness in Contemporary Poland	53
Andrzej Pydyn / Mateusz Popek / Konrad Lewek Past from the Depths: The Results of Underwater Research on Lednica Lake	75
Wojciech Chudziak The Chełmno Land in the Early Middle Ages – On the Border of the Worlds	87
Andrzej Pleszczyński Bolesław the Brave (Chrobry) in the Records of Early Medieval Commemorative Sources	113
Carina Damm (Re)Constructing Sclavinia in Sagas and Skaldic Poetry	125
Sirpa Aalto Remembrance of King Óláfr Tryggvason in the Kings’ Sagas	145

Maciej Lubik
Remembering a Mercenary – Kekaumenos' Passage on King
Haraldr Sigurðarson	157
Yanko M. Hristov
On the Elusive Cult of the Early Medieval Bulgarian Prince and Martyr
Enravota-Boyan (Voyn)	177
Georgios Kardaras
The Eurasian Nomads' Bad Memories of Byzantium: The Negative Image of an Empire in the 6 th Century A.D.	199
Gregory Leighton
St Adalbert of Prague in the Memory Culture of the Teutonic Order in Prussia	209
Tomasz Jacek Lis
The Power of Slavic Kings: Selected Myths about the Middle Ages of Polish and Croatian Historiography in the Second Half of the 19 th Century	223
Maciej Pawlikowski
The Role of Photographer in the Inspection and Analysis of Cultural Heritage Artifacts Using Non-Invasive Photographic Methods	247
List of Contributors	259