

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	References	4
2	Middle Class as the Study Group	5
2.1	Composition of the Middle Class	5
2.2	Financial Focus	6
2.3	Sociodemographic Focus	8
2.4	Class Classification Via Value Orientations, Attitudes and Mentalities	9
2.5	Subjective Classification	11
2.6	Where Is Social Middle Class Heading?	11
2.7	Over-Indebtedness in the Middle Class	14
	2.7.1 Definition of Over-Indebtedness	14
	2.7.2 Databases	15
	2.7.3 Causes of Over-Indebtedness	17
2.8	Social Distribution of Over-Indebtedness	20
	2.8.1 Overcoming Over-Indebtedness	21
2.9	Social Science Discourse on Over-Indebtedness in Germany	22
2.10	Summary	26
	References	26
3	Identity/Identity Work	33
3.1	Identity: Basics	34
3.2	Subject Position and/or Identity	36
3.3	(New) Social Conditions for the Formation of Identity	37
3.4	Middle Class Identity	39
3.5	Identity of Debtors/Over-Indebted People	43

3.6	Identity in the Couple Relationship	45
3.7	'Bastelbiographie' and Patchwork Identity (Process and Outcome of Identity Work)	48
3.8	Further Approaches: Crisis of Identity	50
3.9	Summary	55
	References	55
4	Research Process and Methodological Approach	59
4.1	Design and Method	59
4.2	Field Access and Recruitment Process	61
4.3	Special Features of the Sample	67
4.4	Data Collection	77
4.4.1	Individual Interviews in the Three Waves	77
4.5	Data Analysis	83
4.6	Summary	85
	References	86
5	Identity Work Strategies in the Over-Indebtedness/Insolvency Process	89
5.1	Identity in Continuity	91
5.1.1	Continuing	91
5.1.2	Continue Middle-Class Substitute Activities and Subjects	97
5.1.3	Normalize	107
5.2	Identity in Modification Up to Conversion	111
5.2.1	Growing	111
5.2.2	(Re)flection	116
5.3	Identity in Moratorium	122
5.3.1	Inhibition	124
5.3.2	Suspension/Bridging	130
5.4	Summary	132
	References	133
6	Crisis of Identity: Exemplary Case Descriptions	135
6.1	Case Description of the Ziegler Couple	135
6.2	Case Description Lang Couple	141
6.3	Case Description Sommer Couple	148
6.4	Summary	158
	References	158

7	Alone or Together? Lifeworld of Couples in Over-Indebtedness . . .	159
7.1	Experiencing and Perceiving Over-Indebtedness as a Couple	162
7.2	The Issue of the Debt	168
7.3	Lifeworld of Over-Indebtedness	177
7.4	Summary	187
	References	187
8	Concluding Remarks and Review of Results	189
	References	194
9	Appendices	195
9.1	Appendix 1: Interview Guidelines	195
	9.1.1 Interview Guide: Partner/First Wave	195
9.2	Appendix 2: Recruitment Flyer	201
	9.2.1 Debts? Private Insolvency?	201
9.3	Annex 3: Cover Letters in the Context of Insolvency Notices . . .	203