

Contents

Abbreviations	7
Introduction	9

I. A New Way of Philosophising

Giovanni Carrozzini : Thinking Life, Living Thought. Simondon's Conception of Philosophy	21
Ludovic Duhem : The Long Detour. Simondon Reader of Plato	39
Clémentine Lessard : Energetics of Philosophical Systems. Simondon's Philosophy of Philosophy	57
Carole Maigné : Philosophising from and with the Camera. The Wild Invention of Photography	81
Sarah Margairaz and Julien Rabachou : The Problem of Philosophical Style. The Case of Simondon	101

II. What Is Philosophy about?

Jamil Alioui : On the Mode of Existence of Culture	121
Jean-Yves Chateau : Science and Philosophy in Gilbert Simondon's Work	139
Michaël Crevoisier : Ontogenesis and Finitude. Remarks on the Marginality of Philosophical Thought in Simondon	161
Sacha Loeve : "Un avènement analogue". Philosophy and "Its" Objects ...	183
Ashley Woodward : Philosophy of/as Information	207

III. Philosophy as Ethics and Politics

Matthieu Amat : Gilbert Simondon's Grammars of Value	227
Vincent Bontems : Simondon's "Right Technology". Eco-technology, Scalability and Negative Progress	249
Xavier Guchet : Humanism, Technology and Care in Simondon	267

Taila Picchi: Individuation and History. Transduction of Dialectics and Historical Epistemology 285

Contributors 305

References 309