

Contents

A Word from the Editor	7
Introduction	11
Part 1: The Dangers of Prioritising Economic Goals Over Quality of Preschool Education	19
A Few Words on the Professional Notions that Ideologically Permeate the Field of Education	20
Comparative Research Findings: The Formal Design of Preschool Education in Slovenia and in Serbia in the Context of the Requirements of International Institutions	28
Prologue	28
Methodology	30
Defining the Research Problem	30
Research Questions	31
The Central Thesis	32
The Research Method	32
Data Collection and the Instrument	32
The Goals Defining the Preschool Education Level of the Education System in Serbia and in Slovenia	33
The Goals of the Legislative Framework on Education in Slovenia and in Serbia	33
Goals of Specific Legislation on Preschool Institutions or Preschool Education in Slovenia and in Serbia	36
The Goals Included in the Curricular Documents of the Preschool Education Level in Slovenia and in Serbia	37
The Expectations and Aspirations of International Institutions Regarding Quality Evaluation Models for Preschool Institutions	43
The Quality Evaluation Model for Preschool Institutions in Slovenia	43
The Quality Evaluation Model for Preschool Institutions in Serbia	46
Discussion	48

Part 2: The Process Quality of Preschool Education and the Requirement for Non-Indoctrination	51
The Anchoring Point of Process Quality in Public Preschool Institutions	52
Public and Parliamentary Debates on Addressing the Family in Preschool Institutions are Discriminatory	54
Amendment of the Article Defining the Family	55
Amendment of the Article Defining Marriage	56
Amendment of the Article Defining Child Adoption	57
The Norms, Principles and Values Governing Preschool Education	62
Curriculum for Preschool Institutions: The Content Framework and Guiding Principles for Planning and Implementing the Educational Process in Public Preschool Institutions	68
Discussion of the Goals, Examples of Activities and the Role of the Adult as Defined in Each of the Areas of Activity in Relation to the Topics of the Family and Gender	72
The Presence of the Topic of the Family in Different Areas of Activity and its Interpretation	72
The Presence of the Topic of Gender in Different Areas of Activity and its Interpretation	78
The Gender Binary in the Light of a Non-Exclusionary, Objective and Pluralistic Approach to Addressing Gender in the Educational Process	81
Method	84
Results	87
The First Content Section	87
The Second Content Section	89
Discussion	90
Conclusion	101
References	109
Index	135