

Contents

Religiosity and Secularization in Changing Times: An Introduction Mizrap Polat, Jasmin Donlic &amp; Erol Yildiz	7
Religiosity and Secularization in Turkey
Secularization in Turkey: Conceptual Framework and an Overview of the Secularization Process in Turkey Volkan Ertit	12
Intergenerational Perspectives on the Relationship Between Secularization and Religion in Turkey: A Phenomenological Study Nesrullah Okan, Muhammed Kızılgeçit &amp; Mustafa Kemal Şen	28
Secular Attitudes in University Students Hamza Aktaş	44
A Quantitative Study of Quran-Based Religiosity in Atatürk University Students Emine Çetiner Özyılmaz	56
Religiosity and Secularization in Germany and Austria
The Post-Muslim generation: Between Discrimination, Digitalization and Secularization Jasmin Donlic &amp; Erol Yildiz	70
Identity as Proximity to and Distance from Religion: Muslim Students' Perceptions of Religious Identity in Turkey and Germany Mizrap Polat	102
Secular, Religious, Muslim? The Orientations of Islamic Theology Students in Germany Lena Dreier &amp; Constantin Wagner	125
The Religiousness of Muslim Families in Germany Ayşe Uygun-Altunbaş	139

Further Reflections

The Metamorphosis of Secularization: Alternative Thinking for a
Changing World

Jasmin Donlic & Erol Yildiz 156

Contributors 171