

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	ix
Introduction .....	1
1 Four Anthropological Discourses .....	4
1.1 Mediation .....	4
1.2 Elders .....	9
1.3 Ritual .....	14
1.4 Technique .....	23
2 Methodology of the Book .....	27
2.1 The Analysis of Communication .....	27
2.2 From Process to Procedure .....	30
2.3 Genesis, Change and Exchange .....	33
2.4 Fieldwork and Data Processing .....	36
3 The Research Area: Ada'a Liiban in Eastern Šäwa, Ethiopia .....	42
3.1 Geography, History and Administration .....	42
3.2 Ethnic and Religious Setting .....	46
3.3 Social Organisation, Economy and Settlement Patterns .....	49
Part I: The Institution of Eldership .....	53
I.1 Elders as Social Group .....	55
I.2 Elders as Problem-Solving Institution .....	59
I.3 A Shared Complex .....	63
Part II: Procedure in Mediation .....	69
II.1 The Process .....	69
Incidents (69), Cases (69)
II.1.1 Actors and Parties .....	70
Actors (70), Parties (70), Group belongings (71), Role-casts (72)
II.1.2 Mediators and Judges .....	73
The elders of the land (73), Elders' siding (73), Speech/contract father (74), Priests as mediators (74), Soul father (75), Elders and priests (76), Traditional judge (77)

II.1.3 Ideology and the Aim of Mediation .....	79
Peace (79), Ideology (80), Concept of the evil (80), Value of reconciliation (81), Devine intervenance (82), Reconciliation with spirits (83), Reconciliation with God (83)
II.1.4 Sequences and Phases .....	84
Opening (84), Petitioning phase (85), Discussion phase (86), Compensation phase (86), Affirmation/reconciliation phase (87), Closing (87), Phasing in marriage (88)
II.2 Procedures of Mediation .....	89
II.2.1 Categories of Procedures .....	89
II.2.1.1 Marriage .....	90
First day of petitioning (91), Second day of petitioning (93), Further days of petitioning (97), House-entering (99), Petitioning for the 'best man' (105), Wedding day (107), Return-feast (115)
II.2.1.2 Bride-abduction .....	120
Abduction (125), First day of petitioning (125), Further days of petitioning (130), Discussion (133), Compensation and fulfilment (135), Wedding day/Return-feast (137), Procedural variation (137)
II.2.1.3 Beating and Injury .....	139
Petitioning (140), Discussion (142), Compensation (149), Reconciliation and affirmation (149), Reciprocal invitation (152)
II.2.1.4 Homicide .....	152
Petitioning (154), Discussion: peace talks (162), Compensation (166), Reconciliation (167), Affirmation (172), Promising (173), Reciprocal invitation (176)
II.2.2 Formal Implications .....	177
Matters of importance (177), Hierarchy of formalisation (178), Scales of conflict (179), Problem level and design (180)
Part III: Ritual and Communication .....	183
III.1. Religious Legitimation, Symbol and Ritual .....	184
III.1.1 Religious Legitimation .....	184
Elders (185), Priests (186), 'People of respect' (188)
III.1.2 Symbols of Social and Religious Power .....	189
III.1.2.1 Clothing as Status Emblem .....	189
Cotton cloth (189), Headgear (190), Brocade vestment (191)
III.1.2.2 Insignia of Authority .....	192
Umbrella (192), Stick (193), Whisk (194), Whip (194)

III.1.2.3 Symbols of Worldly and Divine Power .....	195
Holy metal (196), Cowry-shell leather (197), Cross (199)
III.1.3 Ritual Components in Mediation Procedures .....	201
III.1.3.1 Formulas in Action .....	201
Oath of innocence (201), Vows (203), Blessings (205), Curses (206), Prayers (207), Parables (208)
III.1.3.2 Fortune and Success .....	211
Omens (212), Fullness (212), Numerical symbolism (213), Ritual calendar (213)
III.1.3.3 Materialised Blessings .....	216
Blood (216), Milk (217), Butter (219), Grass (220), Myrrh (222), Perfume (223), Honey (223), Beer (225), Liquor (226)
III.1.4 Ritual and Reconciliation .....	226
Kissing (226), Holding hands in an animal's stomach (228), Giving and taking (228), Spitting (230), Anointment (231), Sacrifice (232), Slaughtering (233), Invitation (234), Joint eating (235), Mutual feeding (235)
III.2 Communication in Procedure .....	237
III.2.1 Principle of Substitution: Avoidance but Contact .....	237
Problems in interaction (237), Threat of escalation (238), Avoidance but contact (238), Principle of substitution (239), Filtering of information (239), Facilitated interaction (240)
III.2.2 Meaning of Places .....	240
Compound (240), House (242), The gate to the yard (242), Front-door (243), Plateau (244), Groove (244), Bank of a river (245), Churchyard (246), Temple (246), Tree (247), Location of events (248)
III.2.3 Placing People: Constellations of Power and Affiliation .....	249
Together or separated (249), Spatial division into parties (249), Inner seating order (251)
III.2.4 Rhetoric and Speech .....	253
III.2.4.1 Expressions of Superiority .....	254
Starting the conversation (254), Accusing (254), Questioning (255), Demanding (255)
III.2.4.2 Rhetorics of Guilt .....	256
Plea (257), Appellation (258), Gaining compliance (258), Convincing (259), Admittance (260), Asking for forgiveness (261), Promising (261), Excusing (262), Confirming (263), Agreeing (264)

III.2.4.3 Safe Way of Expressing It: Formulaic Speech and Old Words ....	264
Formulaic speech (264), Old words (265), Making one's point (266)
III.2.4.4 Help and Warning: Elders' Advice .....	268
Promise of help (269), Admonishing advice (269)
III.2.5 Body Language .....	270
Standing (270), Sitting (271), Taking-off the headgear (272), Laying down the stick (273), Holding the hands with upturned palms (273), Bowing (274), Kissing and hand-taking (275), Laying on the ground (276)
III.2.6 Timing, Time-frame and the Right Order .....	276
Attrition (277), 'Healing' time (277), Withholding agreement (278), Scheduling rights (278), A time for everything (278), Guarding mechanisms: sequencing (279)
III.3 Efforts and Means .....	280
Part IV: The Question of Power .....	283
IV.1 Negotiation and the Application of Judgement .....	283
Law to be applied (283), Custom as framework (285), Bargaining (285), Discount (286), Guarantor (287)
IV.2 Other Instances and Institutions .....	288
Lineage and gadaa assemblies (288), Church (288), Spirit mediums (289), Village tribunal (291), State court (292)
IV.3 Elders' Power and its Limits .....	293
Means of sanction (294), Limits of religious legitimation (295), Communicational strategies (296), Breakdown and resumption (297), Power of the institution (297)
Conclusions .....	299
Bibliography .....	305
Sources .....	355
Participant Observation .....	355
Interviews .....	365
Cases .....	379
Informants .....	389
Transcription Table .....	395