

Contents

Foreword	8
Chapter I:
The History of the Basters until the First World War	9
Origin, Descent and Nature of the Rehoboth Basters	9
Rehoboth Already No-man's-land in 1864	11
The Trek to a New Home	12
Obtaining Rehoboth	14
The First Years in Rehoboth	16
South West Africa Becomes a German Protectorate in 1884	18
Outbreak of the First World War, 1914	22
The Attack on Sam-Kubis, May 8, 1915	26
Chapter II:
From the First to the Second World War	28
Times of Defiance	30
Martial Law – the April 5, 1925	33
Times of Waiting	35
Times of Hardship and Change	36
World War II	41
Chapter III:
After the Second World War	42
The Odendaal Plan and its Effects	43
Political Parties in Rehoboth	48
Apartheid	49
The Eighties	50
Footnotes	55
Appendix: The Laws of the Rehoboth Basters	59
Acknowledgements	83
Literature	84