

Contents

Acknowledgements — VII

Introduction: Elite compromises in small capital cities — 1

The regional capitals and their elites — 2

Land patriotism — 10

Socialization processes within the emerging civil societies — 14

Cultural publicity and newspaper discourse as arenas of elite socialization — 20

Goals, method and structure — 24

Sources — 26

Writing of names — 27

Abbreviations — 27

Charity and taste — 28

Vilnius: Pity and beauty in an aristocratic university city — 29

Brno: Duty and taste in the administrative and industrial centre — 58

Charity and taste in cultural publicity in Vilnius and Brno:

A comparison — 88

Cosmopolitanism and patriotism — 91

The ideal of the travelling artist — 91

Vilnius: En route from Warsaw to St Petersburg — 93

Brno: In the shadow of Vienna — 128

Cosmopolitanism and patriotism in Vilnius and Brno newspapers: Comparative remarks — 150

Land patriotism: The discourse of integration and innovation — 153

Social unity: Old values, new people — 153

The social structure and the theatre space of the cities — 153

Vilnius: The 'crowds' in the audience — 155

Brno: The 'exclusive' and the 'broad' audience — 159

Social integration in cultural publicity in Vilnius and Brno: A comparison — 173

Land patriotism and religious tolerance — 174

The religious situation and traditions of urban religious tolerance — 174

Vilnius: The local Catholic elite in the Orthodox Empire — 179

Brno: A Catholic city with wealthy Protestant and Jewish minorities — 186

The 'silent tolerance' in Vilnius and Brno: A comparison — 195

VI — Contents

Land patriotism and national cultures — 196

Land patriotism and the ethnic make-up of Vilnius and Brno — 196

Multicultural Vilnius — 201

German-Czech Brno — 209

Multinational Vilnius and Brno: Comparative remarks — 221

Conclusion — 223

Bibliography — 226

Sources — 226

Literature — 227

Index — 235